

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

Is Pleased to Host and Sponsor Train-The-Trainer

Instruction for Teaching Financial Education

Presented by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC)
Boston Area Office Community Affairs Staff

The FDIC is pleased to announce a FREE, one-day training program for businesses, organizations and community service providers interested in teaching financial education using the Money Smart curriculum. (For more information see: www.fdic.gov/consumers/consumer/moneysmart/index.html)

Date: Wednesday, November 4, 2009

Location: HUD Building, 3rd Floor
10 Causeway St., Boston, MA 02222-1902

Program: A thorough overview of the FDIC's Money Smart curriculum with interactive discussions on developing effective presentations, along with the benefits of networking and partnerships.

Time: Registration, continental breakfast and networking begin at 8:30 a.m.
Program starts promptly at 9:00 and will conclude not later than 3:30 p.m.
Breaks and lunch will be provided

Registration: Seating is limited and on a first-come-first-served basis. To encourage networking and allow broad participation, no more than three people may register from the same organization.

When you register, please provide the following information:

Name, Title, Organization, Street Address, Telephone, Email, Web Site

You may register by email (preferred) to FDICMoneySmartNewEngland@fdic.gov, or Fax to: 781-794-5722. If you register and discover you will not be able to attend, please notify us immediately so someone else may be given the opportunity to participate in the program.

Directions: See maps below.

FDIC Contacts:	Tim Delessio	781-794-5632
	Kip Child	781-794-5636
	Paul Horwitz	781-794-5635

PLEASE PASS THIS NOTICE TO A COLLEAGUE OR COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT PARTNER