

Grove Hall Preparatory, Dorchester Preparatory, and Dudley Square Preparatory Charter Schools

Founders and Proposed Board of Trustees

This is prepared by the founding group of the proposed Grove Hall Preparatory, Dorchester Preparatory, and Dudley Square Preparatory Charter Schools.

Greg Shell is the Chairman of the Roxbury Preparatory Charter School Board of Trustees. Mr. Shell is an Equity Analyst at GMO, LLC, and formerly held positions at the Columbia Management Group of Bank of America and Bain and Company. Mr. Shell possesses expertise in finance and management. He holds a B.S. from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and an M.B.A. from Harvard Business School. Mr. Shell has significant governance experience, serving on the Boards of The Boston Foundation, The Chestnut Hill School, The Partnership, the Efficacy Institute, and the Museum of African-American History. In his time as a Roxbury Prep Trustee, the school has produced outstanding academic results, yielded surpluses and fundraising above targets, and successfully completed charter renewal. Mr. Shell is a lifetime resident of Massachusetts, born in New Bedford, and has extensive professional and personal ties in the corporate, education, and philanthropic sectors.

In addition to Greg Shell, all current Roxbury Preparatory Charter School Trustees will act as Trustees of Grove Hall Preparatory Charter School.
