The diagram below shows one response pathway the human body uses to control blood pressure.

Blood pressure increases.

Receptors in arteries send signals to brain.

Brain signals heart to beat slower.

Blood pressure decreases.

Which body systems work together in this response pathway to control blood pressure?

A. digestive and nervous
B. nervous and circulatory
C. respiratory and digestive
D. circulatory and excretory