

24

Read the sentence from paragraph 12 in the box below.

The flying frog is a fascinating example of an animal that has taken its family traits to extremes in adapting to its special environment.

Based on the passage, explain why the flying frog could be called “extreme.” Support your answer with important details from the passage.