

Name and Date _____

Handout 1: An Expression of the American Mind

Thomas Jefferson wrote that the Declaration of Independence was “an expression of the American mind” that brought together ideas about government developed by many different people, societies, and governments.

Directions: Based on what you have learned in class, identify one idea that influenced the Founders when they created the U.S. government and describe where that idea came from.