MASSACHUSETTS DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

COORDINATED PROGRAM REVIEW REPORT

SHREWSBURY SCHOOL DISTRICT

OVERVIEW OF REVIEW PROCEDURES

As one part of its Accountability System, the Department of Education oversees local compliance with education requirements through the Coordinated Program Review System (CPR). Most reviews include selected requirements in special education under the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. Section 1400 et seq. (IDEA-97), and M.G.L. Chapter 71B (Chapter 766 of the Acts of 1972) and certain federal civil rights requirements under Titles I and II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, together with related state requirements under M.G.L. Chapter 76, Section 5 (Chapter 622 of the Acts of 1971) and other related Massachusetts General Laws. Additionally, all reviews include certain standards included under the Board of Education's Physical Restraint regulations (603 CMR 46.00). Other monitoring activities in the areas of Title I, Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act, the Perkins Vocational and Technical Education Act, and Nutrition Programs and Services are conducted in some districts during these Coordinated Program Review procedures. The selected school districts for 2002-2003 were notified by the Commissioner of Education in June 2002 of scheduled visits and were required to implement self-assessment activities prior to the arrival of the Department's visiting team.

Coordinated Program Review Elements

Team: Depending upon the size of a school district and the number of program areas to be reviewed, a team of approximately two to eight Department staff members together with any necessary outside consultants conducts a Coordinated Program Review over two to ten days in a school district or charter school.

Scope: Approximately fifty-three school districts and charter schools are scheduled to receive visits in school year 2002-2003. All school districts and charter schools in the Commonwealth are monitored through the Department's Coordinated Program Review system on a six-year cycle with an additional mid-cycle special education follow-up visit.

Content: The Program Review criteria encompass the required elements for the specific program areas. In the case of special education, the elements selected for the 2002-2003 reviews contain, at a minimum, those required by the federal Office for Special Education Programs (OSEP) and revised requirements included under IDEA-97 as described in the Department's Special Education Advisories. Additionally, the 2002-2003 reviews incorporate updated state special education requirements as adopted by the Board of Education and effective on December 20, 2000. The Program Review compliance criteria selected in all of the regulated program areas are those that are most closely aligned with the goals of the Massachusetts Education Reform Act of 1993, and intended to promote high standards and achievement for all students.

Report: The Department's report is based on a review of written documentation and data regarding the operation of the district's programs, together with information gathered through the following Department program review methods:

- Interviews of administrative, instructional and support staff across all grade levels.
- Interviews of parent advisory council (PAC) representatives and other interviews as requested by persons from the general public.
- Student record reviews in the program areas of special education, Perkins vocational programs, and Section 504 (student accommodation plans). A sample of student records is selected by the Department. Student records are examined by the onsite team using standard Department student record review procedures to make determinations regarding the implementation of procedural and programmatic requirements. Parents of students with disabilities whose files are selected for the record review are sent a survey that solicits information regarding their experiences with the district's implementation of special education programs, related services and procedural requirements.
- Classroom and facilities observation. A sample of instructional classrooms and other school facilities used in the delivery of programs and services are visited to determine general levels of compliance with program requirements.
- Collaborative Programs and Services. Where the district is a member of a collaborative approved by the Department of Education and is a site for programs or services operated by the collaborative, a sample of interviews, student record reviews and classroom and facility observations are conducted.

An Executive Summary and detailed findings for each program area describe determinations of the Department of Education about the implementation status of each requirement (criterion) reviewed.

Response: The findings included in the Final Report note those criteria the implementation of which the team found to be commendable or substantially implemented. Where criteria are found not to be fully implemented, the local district or charter school must propose corrective actions to bring those areas into compliance with the respective statutes or regulations. Districts are encouraged to incorporate the corrective action into their district and school improvement plans, including the district professional development plan.

* * * * *

The Department of Education believes that the Coordinated Program Review process is a positive experience and that the Final Report should be seen as a helpful planning document for the continuing development of programs and services in the school district or charter school.

REPORT INTRODUCTION

A six-member Massachusetts Department of Education team visited the Shrewsbury School District during the week of January 27, 2003, to evaluate the implementation of selected criteria in the program areas of special education, civil rights, Title I and the Safe and Drug Free Schools and Communities Act. The team appreciated the opportunity to interview staff and parents, to observe classroom facilities and to review the programs underway in the district. The onsite team would like to commend the following areas that were brought to its attention and that it believes have a significant and positive impact on the delivery of educational services for students enrolled in the Shrewsbury School District. These areas are as follows:

Shrewsbury Public Schools is to be commended for fostering inclusion and focusing on the least restrictive environment. The district provides significant supports, modifications and accommodations for students in the regular education setting. Regular education staff and special education staff collaborate extensively to provide services in the least restrictive environment. Administration and staff are to be commended for their commitment and dedication to high student achievement.

Shrewsbury Public Schools provides a considerable amount of transition services to students throughout all grade levels. The district has a significant amount of parental involvement throughout the IEP process and parents take part in developing transition plans for students. Staff work with outside agencies in order to ensure a smooth transition process for students and to ensure that students have appropriate supports before, during and after the transition period.

Shrewsbury Public Schools' Title I program compliments the district's belief in and practice of inclusion. The Title I program focuses on fostering strong literacy programs and is a program that is serving students well.

The district coordinates the Safe and Drug Free Schools program with a network of community-wide agencies, and the collaboration with the community and police ensures that a consistent safe and drug free message is provided to students and families. The Safe and Drug Free Schools Advisory Council includes representatives who bring expertise and provide consultation toward developing ongoing awareness and prevention programs. Advisory Council members are involved in ensuring the implementation of the Principals of Effectiveness.

Professional development in the area of Safe and Drug Free Schools focuses on the Responsive Classroom, addressing bullying and promoting a positive educational environment. The district's Pupil Personnel Services and Special Education Department provide support, direct services and prevention education to students through the guidance and counseling staff.

Some of the commendations noted above are repeated within the body of the Department's report under the appropriate compliance criteria.

The Department is submitting the following Coordinated Program Review Report containing findings made pursuant to this onsite visit. In preparing this report, the team reviewed extensive written documentation regarding the operation of the district's programs, together with information gathered by means of following Department program review methods:

- Interviews of 20 administrative staff.
- Interviews of 63 teaching and support services staff across all levels.
- Interviews of 15 parent advisory council (PAC) representatives, parents and interviews as requested by persons from the general public.

- Student record reviews: A sample of 32 student records was selected by the Department. Student records were first examined by local staff, whose findings were then verified by the onsite team using standard Department of Education student record review procedures to make determinations regarding the implementation of procedural and programmatic requirements.
- Parent surveys: Thirty-five parents of students with disabilities were sent surveys that solicited information regarding their experiences with the district's implementation of special education programs, related services and procedural requirements. Fourteen of these parent surveys were returned to the Department of Education for review by the onsite team.
- Observation of classrooms and other facilities. A sample of 25 instructional classrooms and other school facilities used in the delivery of programs and services was visited to determine general levels of compliance with program requirements.

The report includes findings in the program areas reviewed organized under nine components . These components are listed in the executive summary on the following pages. The findings in each program area explain the “ratings, ”determinations by the team about the implementation status of the criteria reviewed. The ratings indicate those criteria that were found by the team to be substantially “Implemented” or implemented in a “Commendable” manner. (Refer to the “Definition of Terms” section of the report.) Where criteria were found to be either "Partially Implemented" or "Not Implemented," the district or charter school must propose to the Department corrective actions to bring those areas into compliance with the controlling statute or regulation. In some instances the team may have rated a requirement as “Implemented” but made a specific comment on the district’s implementation methods that also may require response from the district or charter school.

Districts are expected to incorporate the corrective action into their district and school improvement plans, including their professional development plan.

COORDINATED PROGRAM REVIEW REPORT

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Shrewsbury School District

The following summary synthesizes the findings for criteria included in the Coordinated Program Review as they respond to essential questions which the Department has formulated for each of the components of the report. Note that a more detailed discussion of the onsite team's findings, together with the specific legal standards for each program area included in this review, follows this summary.

Component I: Assessment of Student Progress

Has the district implemented an assessment system that uses appropriate instruments, is conducted according to the specified timelines, and covers the appropriate content areas to determine instructional needs of students?

The district has appropriate assessment procedures in place and the district uses a variety of assessments when evaluating students for special education eligibility. Staff are appropriately trained and updated in assessment procedures; however, the district does not consistently complete the required documentation when evaluating a child who is suspected of having a specific learning disability.

The district conducts initial evaluations and reevaluations within the required timeframes, and summaries of assessments are made available to parents upon request. The assessments cover the appropriate content areas and the entire Team is in attendance to determine the instructional needs of the students.

The district is to be commended on the transition services made available to students. The district provides extensive transition planning for students at all levels. Staff, parents, students and outside agencies meet to develop transition plans in order to ensure smooth transitions, as well as to ensure that students have appropriate supports before, during and after the transition process.

Parents receive progress reports on students' progress toward reaching the goals set forth in the IEPs at least as often as parents are informed of the progress of non-disabled students; however, the progress reports do not always contain the required narrative.

Students with disabilities participate in MCAS testing.

Component II: Student Identification and Program Placement

Has the district followed procedures for student identification and placement into the program according to the criteria specified in regulations?

The district has procedures in place for identifying students in need of special education and the district is to be commended for ensuring that students are placed in the least restrictive environment. IEPs include specially designed instruction and related services necessary for students to access the general curriculum, and the Team determines the need for extended day and extended school year services. The district conducts limited outreach to agencies and professionals in the community, but ensures that students are appropriately screened and that services start by the third birthday.

The district uses qualified staff, as well as appropriate procedures and assessments, to classify and evaluate students who are limited English proficient and who need special language assistance. At this time, the district has limited support services to effectively serve all limited English proficient students at the elementary school level.

Patterns of placement in the district's programs and services for disabled students, linguistic and racial minority students, as well as females, are consistent with patterns of placement for non-disabled students, linguistic and racial majority students and males. The district offers an array of occupational and vocational programs, as well as program modifications, to meet the needs of disabled students.

For Title I, the district utilizes multiple, objective, educationally-related criteria to identify eligible students who are failing or most at-risk of failing to meet the high quality student academic performance and assessment standards required of all students. The district also identifies limited English proficient students as eligible and selected for Title I services on the same basis as other students are selected to receive services.

Component III: Parental Involvement

Has the district ensured that parents are notified in the appropriate language and are involved in decisions regarding their children's programs and services? Where appropriate, does the district involve community representatives in shaping programs?

The district has a high rate of parental involvement in decisions made for students' programs and services, as well as throughout the special education process; however, parents are not always consulted regarding the evaluators to be used for assessing the students. Once a student is referred for an evaluation, the district may delay providing parents with written notice because the district has not fully explored instructional support programs and interventions through the Instructional Support Team. The district involves community representatives in shaping students' programs.

The district has an active Parent Advisory Council (PAC); however, the PAC does not advise the school committee on matters that pertain to the education and safety of students with disabilities or meet regularly with school officials to participate in the planning, development and evaluation of the school committee's special education programs.

The district does not consistently translate special education progress reports in a timely manner.

The district provides materials and training to Title I parents to enable them to improve their children's achievement, and parents are given the opportunity to be informed about the Title I program. However, parents are not involved in the development of the Title I program plan, evaluation of the parental involvement program, decisions regarding how funds are allotted for parental involvement activities, and workshops that build the capacity to be meaningfully engaged in such involvement.

For the district's Safe and Drug Free Schools program, parents are aware of the violence and drug prevention efforts and have had the opportunity to participate in program delivery. Shrewsbury has an extensive network of community-wide agencies and services that are active in the Health, Safety and Student Support programs. The district coordinates the programs and projects with other federal, state and local programs for drug-abuse and violence prevention, including health programs. The Safe and Drug Free Schools Advisory Council is representative of community agencies and is active in developing appropriate drug abuse and violence awareness and prevention programs.

Component IV: Curriculum and Instruction

Does the district hold all students to high expectations and standards? Are programs designed to maximize student performance and students' participation in the general curriculum? Is curriculum throughout the district's programs aligned with the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks? Has the district provided for coordination across program areas?

The district holds students to high expectations and standards, and the district has designed programs throughout all grade levels to maximize student performance and participation in the general curriculum. District personnel are familiar with the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks and the district has aligned its curriculum with the Frameworks. Instructional standards are maintained at high levels, and the district ensures that a continuum of services and placements are available to students with disabilities, including specialized materials and assistive technology. For students placed out-of-district, the district should develop and implement monitoring plans to oversee the full implementation of the IEPs in an on-going manner.

For Title I, the district provides opportunities for students to participate in extended day/week/year programs and to take part in activities that may be funded through the integration of district resources.

The district provides for coordination across program areas. In particular, Pupil Personnel Services and Special Education services support local Safe and Drug Free Schools activities through guidance and counseling.

Component V: Student Support Services

Has the district ensured that all students have equal access to programs and services? Does the district provide support to students who need it?

The district ensures that all students with disabilities have equal access to programs and services. All students have an equal opportunity to participate in vocational, supportive and remedial services. The district provides a significant amount of supports to students, including developing behavioral intervention plans for students whose behavior interferes with learning.

Although the district has a long-standing and productive Title I program at a local parochial school, the district has not consulted with all non-public schools that might be eligible to ensure that those schools are well informed of the Title I services.

The district provides notification to students, parents, employees and the general public that all programs and activities are offered without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin, sexual orientation and disability.

Component VI: Faculty, Staff and Administration

Does the district maintain certified staff in the specific program areas, provide supervision of aides and tutors, and provide ongoing professional development? Are program leadership and oversight effective? Are the district's personnel procedures non-discriminatory and does it seek to recruit employees from all groups?

The district's special education teachers and related service providers hold appropriate certifications. Aides and tutors receive appropriate supervision. Although the district provides staff with various professional development opportunities, not all staff have received training on state and federal special education requirements and related local special education policies and procedures.

All Title I staff are not certified in the areas in which they teach. Staff who do not meet the "highly qualified" requirement are obtaining the necessary certification. The district uses appropriate expenditures to ensure that teachers become highly qualified.

The district's personnel procedures and recruitment activities are non-discriminatory, and the district seeks to recruit employees from all groups; however, the district must include a complete non-discrimination statement in advertisements placed in the newspapers. Additionally, all staff have not received annual training on civil rights responsibilities.

The district has effective program leadership and oversight in all areas throughout the district.

Component VII: School Facilities

Does the district maintain accessible facilities that are conducive to learning, facilitate integration, and provide equal opportunity for students to achieve?

In general, the district maintains accessible facilities that are conducive to learning. Due to the overcrowding in some facilities, special education instruction, related services and classes for limited English proficient students are provided in areas that do not facilitate integration and are not comparable to the spaces used for regular education.

Component VIII: Program Plan and Evaluation

Does the district evaluate its programs in accordance with regulatory requirements? Does it use the results of its evaluations to improve programs? Do parents have opportunities for input on program needs, program implementation, and program evaluation and improvement?

The district does not regularly evaluate the special education programs, services and administrative areas.

For Title I, the district annually surveys staff and parents, as well as reviews student assessments; however, the district does not conduct a written needs assessment and data analysis in consultation with staff and parents. The adequate yearly progress is evaluated on at least an annual basis, and Title I program changes are implemented that reflect the results of this evaluation.

The district has a curriculum review process to regularly review the instructional and educational materials, as well as a comprehensive evaluation process to examine and remedy policies and programs that discriminate or limit educational access.

The district regularly evaluates and assesses the Safe and Drug Free Schools program, which has led to the development of a district-wide plan to address positive school culture and climate. The past year's needs assessment and program evaluations provided vital information about bullying and the need to provide a positive school environment. At this time, the private schools have minimal participation in the district's needs assessment and there is no formalized evaluation plan for each component of the program.

Component IX: Record keeping

Does the District maintain required records and documentation for each program area? Are entitlement grants appropriately designed, amended, and monitored?

The district maintains the required records and documentation for each program area. The entitlement grants appear to be appropriately designed, amended and monitored. The district has demonstrated that the Title I funds are used for the express purpose of serving those students identified as being in greatest need of Title I assistance. Additionally, appropriate accounting and budget procedures are being implemented to ensure that program expenditures are related to the purpose and intent of the Safe and Drug Free Schools and Communities Act.

DEFINITION OF TERMS
FOR THE RATING OF EACH COMPLIANCE CRITERION

Commendable	Any requirement or aspect of a requirement implemented in an exemplary manner significantly beyond the requirements of law or regulation.
Implemented	The requirement is substantially met.
Implementation in Progress	The criterion includes one or more new federal Title I requirements that became effective during the 2002-2003 academic year. The district has substantially implemented any pre-September 1, 2002 requirements also included under the criterion and is currently engaged in staff training and/or is beginning implementation practices for new requirements which the Department's onsite team anticipates will result in substantial compliance by the end of the 2002-2003 school year.
Partially Implemented	The requirement, in one or several important aspects, is not entirely met.
Not Implemented	The requirement is totally or substantially not met.
Not Applicable	The requirement does not apply to the school district or charter school.

Several key areas of compliance with federal special education requirements have been highlighted in SHADED TEXT in the Program Review Criteria. These highlighted areas are included in the Massachusetts Continuous Improvement Plan (CIP) which is being used by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP), to track over time this state's compliance in these key areas.

COMPONENT I: ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT PROGRESS

The criteria in this component examine whether the District has implemented an assessment system that uses appropriate instruments, conducted according to the specified timelines and covering the appropriate content areas to determine instructional needs of students for the program areas listed below:

CRITERION NUMBER	SAFE AND DRUG FREE SCHOOLS VIII. PROGRAM PLAN AND EVALUATION
	Legal Standard
SDF 5	Each recipient bases its programs on a thorough assessment of objective data about the drug and violence problems in the schools and communities served. Each SDFSCA grant recipient conducts a thorough assessment of the nature and extent of youth drug use and violence problems. [Title IV Sections 4111 – 4116, 20 U.S.C. 7111 – 7116]
	Rating: Partially Implemented District Response Required: Yes

Department of Education Findings:

This is a basic strength of the Shrewsbury SDFSCA program development. The district regularly conducts a local middle and high school YRBS, Youth Risk Behavior Survey. Last year’s needs assessment and end of the year evaluation led to the development of a district wide plan to address positive school culture and climate, in addition to previously identified objectives. In the past, although the private schools had representation on the advisory council, they had minimal participation in the needs assessment. This issue is currently being discussed. The district’s response to this standard should describe how this would be remedied.

CRITERION NUMBER	Legal Standard
SDF 6	Each recipient, with the assistance of a local or regional advisory council, establishes a set of measurable goals and objectives and designs its programs to meet those goals and objectives. [Title IV Sections 4111 – 4116, 20 U.S.C. 7111 – 7116]
	Rating: Commendable DISTRICT RESPONSE REQUIRED: No

Department of Education Findings:

Measurable objectives are written to address the major findings of the data analysis. Over the years Shrewsbury has devised a comprehensive local violence and drug prevention plan which incorporates both components of a science based curriculum and community programs to address the objectives. The past year’s needs assessment and program evaluations provided vital information about bullying and the need to provide a strong positive school climate in each of the schools. This had led to newly identified goals and objectives with accompanying activities to follow and augment the efforts of the previous two-year plan. Activities such as the building of respectable communities through responsive classroom efforts, bully-proof efforts and the enhancement of school based mental health resources demonstrate a program design that supports the identified goals and measurable objectives.

Standards 5, 6, and 7 below continue to be the focus of the Principles of Effectiveness under NCLB.

CRITERION NUMBER

SDF 7	Each recipient designs and implements its programs for youth based on research or evaluation that provides evidence that programs used actually prevent or reduce drug use, violence or disruptive behavior among youth. [Title IV Sections 4111 – 4116, 20 U.S.C. 7111 – 7116]
	Rating: Implemented DISTRICT RESPONSE REQUIRED: No

Department of Education Findings:

The district utilizes science-based programs along with community supported safety and prevention programs. It is imperative that each component of the program be evaluated regularly regarding process, outcome and impact. In addition, as the district is embarking on a new initiative relative to the continued improvement of the school culture and positive school climate, it is suggested that the USDOE “Exemplary and Promising Safe, Disciplined, and Drug-Free Schools Programs” be reviewed. It would also be worthwhile to consider conducting a feasibility assessment of prospective programs.

CRITERION NUMBER
	Legal Standard
SDF 8	Each recipient evaluates its programs periodically to assess its progress toward achieving its goals and objectives, and uses its evaluation results to refine, improve and strengthen its programs, and to refine its goals and objectives as appropriate.
	Rating: Partially Implemented DISTRICT RESPONSE REQUIRED: Yes

Department of Education Findings:

The district provided evidence that there is a regular overall program review and evaluation. However, there is not a formalized evaluation plan for each component of the program. (See above). Clearly, though, there are checks and balances in place to allow for ongoing program review and evaluation. The evaluation has led to refinement of the programs (see criterion 5&6).

In the consolidated NCLB program design for FY2004, the district will need to respond to this criterion, describing process, outcome, and impact evaluation of the measurable objectives, how program strategies have been refined accordingly, and how evaluation results will be reported.

APPENDIX:
SCHOOL DISTRICT PROFILE INFORMATION

The information which is provided in this Appendix was drawn from data supplied by the school district. The Department's visiting team carefully reviewed this data as part of its planning for the onsite visit and in preparing this Coordinated Program Review Report. This district-wide information, together with more detailed school building data, is periodically updated by the school district and is available in an evercurrent form on the Department's internet web site at <<http://profiles.doe.mass.edu/>>.

School and District Profiles

Definitions of Terms

Profiles

The Massachusetts Department of Education collects information about schools and districts. Some of the information collected is published in School and District Profiles on DOE web pages. The information provides a snapshot of the educational picture in communities across the state.

Now districts view, add, update and delete their own district and school information over the web to make sure that the information is as up-to-date and accurate as possible. In addition, the general public will be able to view Directory information about each school district in the state. Individuals can retrieve for themselves information such as school personnel, school programs (e.g. School Choice) and the location of specialized services such as Special Education Collaboratives, and Vocational Training Programs.

The list below provides an explanation of information presented in the Profiles.

Directory Information

DOE Code: The DOE Code, also referred to as the Organization Code, is an eight digit numeric code assigned by the Massachusetts Department of Education to every organization listed in the Directory Profiles, including every district and school in the Commonwealth. For districts and schools, the first four digits represent the District Code and the last four digits represent the School Code. Thus the organization code "02660505" stands for "0266" (Sharon Public Schools) + "0505" (Sharon High). If a form requires the 8-digit DOE school code it is calling for the entire organization code.

Prior to the 2001 school year, organization codes contained six digits (three for the district and three for the school.) With the exception of some special needs schools, the eight digit codes are the same as the six digit codes with one zero added before the district code and another zero added before the school code. Thus, Sharon High's old six digit organizational code was 266505.

Please Note: The Department's Organization Code is not the same as the Institution codes assigned by the College Board for SAT and AP results. Nor is it the same as the NCES code assigned to Massachusetts schools by the U.S. Department of Education.

Grades/Schools*: indicates the number and grade range of elementary, middle/junior high and high schools in the district, as well as the total number of schools in the district and the grade range of the school system. An elementary range beginning with "PK" indicates the district has pre-kindergarten. A high school range ending in "13" or "14" indicates the district has a post-graduate program. Kindergarten starting age indicates the age as of a particular date at which children are eligible to begin kindergarten.

Services: Services include:

- Inter-district Choice: indicates whether students from other districts may enroll in the district through the state school choice program, which is voluntary and on a space-available basis.
- Intra-district Choice: indicates whether the district has a school choice program within the school district for students who live in the district.
- Vocational Education: indicates whether the district operates a Chapter 74 approved vocational education program.
- Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE): indicates whether the district operates a TBE program. Under Massachusetts law, a district must provide a TBE program in a particular language if there are 20 or more limited English proficient students in that particular language group enrolled in the district. Limited English proficient students are students whose first language is not English and who cannot perform ordinary class work in English.
- METCO: indicates whether the district participates in the state METCO program, which promotes voluntary desegregation by enrolling minority students from Boston and Springfield in suburban schools.

Relationships: Relationships include:

- Member of Regional Districts*: for local school districts, indicates the name(s) of any academic and/or vocational regional district(s) of which the local school district is a member. For regional school districts, indicates the names of member local school districts. A regional school district provides educational services to more than one town.

* District level data only.

Enrollment

Enrollment by Grade: indicates the enrollment for grades Pre-kindergarten (PK), kindergarten through 12, post-graduate grades 13 and 14, and ungraded (u/g) students for the listed school year.

Race/Ethnicity: indicates the percent of enrollment by race/ethnicity for the listed school year. The reporting categories are those used by the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

Selected Populations: indicates the percent of enrollment represented by students in special education programs*, students who are limited English proficient, and students eligible to receive free or reduced price lunch*. Data are for the listed school year.

Children Attending Public Schools*: indicates the percent of school-age children in a city or town attending public schools, for the listed school years.

* District level data only.

Test Results

Massachusetts Comprehensive Assessment System (MCAS): Click the MCAS link to see MCAS results for the district or school.

For additional information about Massachusetts Comprehensive Assessment System (MCAS), please refer to the Department of Education's MCAS web site at www.doe.mass.edu/mcas.

SAT: The district or school's SAT results are displayed for the listed years.

People

A list of people who work in the organization. Each name is linked to contact information for the person.

Finance

Per Pupil Expenditures*: are calculated by dividing a district's operating costs by its average pupil membership. Operating costs include expenditures for administration, instruction, pupil services, transportation, plant maintenance, and fixed charges. These costs do not include capital outlay and long-term interest on school debt. Average pupil membership includes students who receive services in the district's schools, as well as students receiving home or hospital instruction. Data for regular education, special education, bilingual education and vocational education students are provided in addition to the total for all day programs, for the listed school years.

Teacher Salary*: indicates the minimum and maximum teacher salaries available, for the listed school years.

Foundation Budget Spending Comparison*: The education reform act established a foundation budget for each school district. This budget represents the minimum level of spending needed to provide an adequate education for the district's students. The foundation budget is made up of 19 separate categories. The chart shows the district's actual spending in each category for the listed school year as a percentage of the district's foundation budget. If the percentage exceeds 100%, the district spent more in the category than suggested by the foundation budget. If the percentage is less than 100%, the district spent less. Significant variations between local spending and the foundation budget, or between local spending and the statewide averages, should be reviewed closely. In some cases, the differences may be due to unique circumstances and needs within the district. In other cases, the differences may suggest potential areas for review and improvement.

Click one of the links in the Finance section for more school finance information.

* District level data only.

Other Data

Dropout/Attendance Rates: indicates the percentage of students in grades 9-12 who dropped out of school between July 1 and June 30 prior to the listed year and who did not return to school by October 1. Dropouts are defined as students who leave school prior to graduation for reasons other than transfer to another school.

Attendance Rate: indicates the average percentage of enrolled students present in school for the listed school year.

Student Exclusions: indicates the number of student exclusions that occurred during the listed school year. An exclusion is defined as the removal of a student for disciplinary purposes permanently, indefinitely or for more than ten consecutive school days.

Plans of High School Graduates: indicates the post-graduate intentions of students for the listed school year.

Technology: indicates the number of students for every one computer and the percent of classrooms with Internet access. Data are for the listed school year; "DNR" appears for schools and districts which did not yet report data
