COORDINATED PROGRAM REVIEW REPORT

Attleboro Public Schools

OVERVIEW OF REVIEW PROCEDURES

As one part of its Accountability System, the Department of Education oversees local compliance with education requirements through the Coordinated Program Review System (CPR). All reviews include the following selected requirements:

- special education under the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA-97), and M.G.L. Chapter 71B (Chapter 766 of the Acts of 1972);
- federal civil rights requirements under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Equal Educational Opportunities Act of 1974, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, together with related state requirements under M.G.L. Chapter 76, Section 5 (Chapter 622 of the Acts of 1971) and other Massachusetts General Laws;
- targeted standards from the Board of Education's Physical Restraint regulations (603 CMR 46.00);
- targeted standards from the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Education Assistance Improvements Act of 2001 (included in the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001); and
- provisions of M.G.L. c. 71A, the state law that governs the provision of education to limited English proficient students. (Note that due to the voters' approval in 2002 of an initiative petition entitled "Question 2," M.G.L. c. 71A has been significantly amended. Under the amended Chapter 71A, limited English proficient students, now referred to as "English learners," must be provided instruction in sheltered English immersion or 2-way bilingual programs unless they have received a waiver. As a result of this change in the law, the Department's Coordinated Program Review standards under Chapter 71A are significantly revised for the 2003-2004 school year. All districts reviewed by the Department during the 2003-2004 Coordinated Program Review cycle and that enroll limited English proficient students have been implementing self-assessment activities using these updated standards. Six school districts throughout the state are participating in pilot monitoring activities to validate their self-assessment results as part of their scheduled Coordinated Program Review.)

Additional program areas reviewed during the Coordinated Program Review visits in selected districts may also include:

- Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, including related "No Child Left Behind" requirements in Title IIA;
- Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act;
- Career and Technical Education requirements under the federal Perkins Vocational and Technical Education Act and state M.G.L. c. 74; and
- Nutrition Programs and Services

The selected school districts for 2003-2004 were notified by the Commissioner of Education in June 2003 of scheduled visits and of requirements to implement self-assessment activities prior to the arrival of the Department's visiting team.

The Department's 2003-2004 schedule of Coordinated Program Reviews is posted on the Department's web-site at <http://www.doe.mass.edu/pqa/review/cpr/schedule.html>. The state-wide six-year Program Review cycle together with the Department's Mid-cycle Special Education follow-up monitoring schedule are posted at <http://www.doe.mass.edu/pqa/review/cpr/6yrcycle_ad.html>.

Coordinated Program Review Elements

Team: Depending upon the size of a school district and the number of program areas to be reviewed, a team of two to eight Department staff members together with any necessary outside consultants conducts a Coordinated Program Review over two to ten days in a school district or charter school.

Scope: Fifty-four school districts and charter schools are scheduled to receive visits in school year 2003-2004. All school districts and charter schools in the Commonwealth are monitored through the Department's Coordinated Program Review system on a six-year cycle with an additional mid-cycle special education follow-up visit.

Content: The Program Review criteria encompass the required elements for the specific program areas. In the case of special education, the elements selected for the 2003-2004 reviews contain, at a minimum, those required by the federal Office for Special Education Programs (OSEP) and revised requirements included under IDEA-97 as described in the Department's Special Education Advisories. Additionally, the 2003-2004 reviews incorporate updated state special education requirements as adopted by the Board of Education and effective on December 20, 2000. The Program Review compliance criteria selected in all of the regulated program areas are those that are most closely aligned with the goals of the Massachusetts Education Reform Act of 1993, and intended to promote high standards and achievement for all students.

Report: The Department's report is based on a review of written documentation and data regarding the operation of the district's programs, together with information gathered through the following Department program review methods:

- Interviews of administrative, instructional and support staff across all grade levels.
- Interviews of parent advisory council (PAC) representatives and other interviews as requested by persons from the general public.
- Student record reviews in the program areas of special education, English learner education (c. 71A), Career and Technical Education programs, and Section 504 (student accommodation plans). A representative sample of student records is selected by the Department. Student records are examined by the Onsite Team using standard Department student record review procedures to make determinations regarding the implementation of procedural and programmatic requirements. Parents of students with disabilities whose files are selected for the record review are sent a survey that solicits information regarding their experiences with the district's implementation of special education programs, related services and procedural requirements.
- Classroom and facilities observation. A sample of instructional classrooms and other school facilities used in the delivery of programs and services are visited to determine general levels of compliance with program requirements.
- Collaborative Programs and Services. Where the district is a member of a collaborative approved by the Department of Education and is a site for programs or services operated by the collaborative, a sample of interviews, student record reviews and classroom and facility observations are conducted.

An Executive Summary and detailed findings for each program area describe determinations of the Department about the implementation status of each requirement (criterion) reviewed.

Response: The findings included in the Final Report note those criteria the implementation of which the Team found to be commendable or substantially implemented. Where compliance criteria are found to be not fully implemented, the local district, charter school, or educational collaborative must propose corrective actions to bring those areas into compliance with the respective statutes or regulations.

All recently issued Department of Education Coordinated Program Review Reports are posted on the agency's website at <http://www.doe.mass.edu/pqa/review/cpr/reports/> .

The Department believes that the Coordinated Program Review process is a positive experience and that the Final Report is a helpful planning document for the continued development and improvement of programs and services in each school district, charter school and educational collaborative.

REPORT INTRODUCTION

A 10-member Massachusetts Department of Education team visited Attleboro Public Schools during the week of May 13, 2004 to evaluate the implementation of selected criteria in the program areas of Special Education, Civil Rights, Safe and Drug Free Schools, Title I and Career and Technical Education. The team appreciated the opportunity to interview staff and parents, to observe classroom facilities and to review the programs underway in the district. The onsite team would like to commend the following areas that were brought to its attention and that it believes have a significant and positive impact on the delivery of educational services for students enrolled in the Attleboro Public Schools. These areas are as follows:

The collaboration and cooperation that occurs among the special education staff members, regular education teachers and paraprofessional staff that was observed in the program at the Hill Roberts School.

The practice of sending the summaries of assessments to parents prior to the Team meeting that occurs at the Hill Roberts School.

The transition process from Early Intervention to the Early Learning Center, especially the close communication and cooperation that occurs to ensure that the child's needs are identified and programs and services are put in place to meet each child's unique needs.

The efforts taken at the Thatcher School to integrate all students into the life of the school and the steps taken there to ensure that all students are placed in the least restrictive setting.

The flexibility that was noted as staff members make changes in programs within each school building to best serve the needs of their students.

The meaningful consultation that takes place with community agencies and representatives of schools in the application development for the Safe and Drug Free Schools program.

MCAS test scores of Career and Technical Education students and other students are comparable; there is evidence that CTE students are taking the same level of core academic courses as non-CTE students.

In the area of CTE the school district has implemented the Senior Project as a graduation requirement.

Some of the commendations noted above are repeated within the body of the Department's report under the appropriate compliance criteria.

The Department is submitting the following Coordinated Program Review Report containing findings made pursuant to this onsite visit. In preparing this report, the team reviewed extensive written documentation regarding the operation of the district's programs, together with information gathered by means of following Department program review methods:

- Interviews of 32 administrative staff.
- Interviews of 74 teaching and support services staff across all levels.
- Interviews of three special education parent advisory council (PAC) representatives, five Title I parent representatives, one CTE parent representative and three parents regarding Safe and Drug Free Schools.
- Interviews of 20 CTE students and 12 students regarding Safe and Drug Free Schools.

- Five interviews as requested by persons from the general public.
- Student record reviews: A sample of 50 student records was selected by the Department. Student records were first examined by local staff, whose findings were then verified by the onsite team using standard Department of Education student record review procedures to make determinations regarding the implementation of procedural and programmatic requirements.
- Parent surveys: 30 parents of students with disabilities were sent surveys that solicited information regarding their experiences with the district's implementation of special education programs, related services and procedural requirements. Ten of these parent surveys were returned to the Department of Education for review by the onsite team.
 - Observation of classrooms and other facilities. A sample of ten instructional classrooms, 12 shops, two cooperative education sites, and other school facilities used in the delivery of programs and services was visited to determine general levels of compliance with program requirements.

The report includes findings in the program areas reviewed organized under nine components . These components are listed in the executive summary on the following pages. The findings in each program area explain the “ratings, ”determinations by the team about the implementation status of the criteria reviewed. The ratings indicate those criteria that were found by the team to be substantially “Implemented” or implemented in a “Commendable” manner. (Refer to the “Definition of Terms” section of the report.) Where criteria were found to be either "Partially Implemented" or "Not Implemented," the district or charter school must propose to the Department corrective actions to bring those areas into compliance with the controlling statute or regulation. In some instances the team may have rated a requirement as “Implemented” but made a specific comment on the district’s implementation methods that also may require response from the district or charter school.

Districts are expected to incorporate the corrective action into their district and school improvement plans, including their professional development plans.

COORDINATED PROGRAM REVIEW REPORT

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Attleboro Public Schools

The following summary synthesizes the findings for criteria included in the Coordinated Program Review as they respond to essential questions that the Department has formulated for each of the components of the report. Note that a more detailed discussion of the onsite team's findings, together with the specific legal standards for each program area included in this review, follows this summary.

Component I: Assessment of Students

Has the district implemented an assessment system that uses appropriate instruments, is conducted according to the specified timelines, and covers the appropriate content areas to determine instructional needs of students?

The district selects appropriate instruments and evaluates students effectively, although evaluations are not always completed and Team meetings are not always held within the specified timelines. Timeline requirements are not always met for annual reviews and reevaluations. The Hill Roberts School is commended for its practice of sending a summary of the assessments to parents prior to the Team meeting. The district has developed a form that specifies all documentation and procedures that are required when a student is found to have a specific learning disability, but this form was not included in the record of all students where it would be required. Student records and IEPs do not include information regarding age of majority decisions or documentation of court appointed guardianships. Parents do not receive IEP progress reports at least as often as parents receive report cards on non-disabled students and progress reports do not always contain all required elements. There is not always someone present at the Team meeting designated as having the authority to commit the resources of the district.

Documentation in the records of CTE students was inconsistent, only a few student folders contained the results of individual academic assessments.

Component II: Student Identification and Program Placement

Has the district followed procedures for student identification and placement into the program according to the criteria specified in regulations?

The district reaches out to those places that are likely to be able to identify students in need of services and they follow procedures to place students appropriately. Ongoing communication and coordination with Early Intervention ensures the proper identification and timely assessment of students likely to be in need of preschool programming. The need for extended school year programs and services is not always a Team decision based on the likelihood that a student would regress because there was not always someone at the Team meeting with the authority to commit resources and because of limits put on summer programming. Software used in writing IEPs is missing guiding questions and some required elements, for example, if the extended school year services were not a part of the IEP they are then not mentioned in the document as being considered.

The district will be conducting a home language survey of all students in September of 2004 to identify students who are limited English-proficient. There is evidence that limited English proficient students are identified as eligible for Title I services on the same basis as other students and students enrolled in CTE programs are appropriately identified for services.

Component III: Parental Involvement

Has the district ensured that parents are notified in the appropriate language and are involved in decisions regarding their children's programs and services? Where appropriate, does the district involve community representatives in shaping programs?

Team meeting notices contain all required elements and the district has strong parent representation at Team meetings. Parents receive the required notice and procedural safeguards when a student is found not eligible for special education. Although not all records of preschool students had the documentation, interviews consistently indicated that parent consent is received before conducting an evaluation. There is an active Special Education PAC in place with accepted by-laws and a workshop was conducted on the rights of students and their parents. The district has policies in place to ensure that parents will be notified in the appropriate language and the district is in the process of translating notices into the primary language of the home.

There is strong evidence of meaningful consultation with community agencies and participation by community agencies in focus groups and meetings regarding the prevalence of drug use and violence-related issues in the community. Safe and Drug Free Schools program activities promote parent involvement but parents need to be provided at least annually with progress or status reports regarding program outcomes and accomplishments as well as the goals and objectives of the program. Parents and other interested individuals are involved with the development, implementation and evaluation of CTE programs and appropriate information concerning CTE programs is provided to students and their parents. Not all parents of students in the Title I program are aware of the written parent involvement policy, and opportunity for input on the types of academic programs and services to be provided to students and parents.

Component IV: Curriculum and Instruction

Does the district hold all students to high expectations and standards? Are programs designed to maximize student performance and students' participation in the general curriculum? Is curriculum throughout the districts' programs aligned with the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks? Has the district provided for coordination across program areas?

The district has aligned its programs with the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks and there is a continuum of alternative services and placements to meet the needs of students that includes prevocational and vocational programs. The district however, does not always ensure that there is coordination across program areas and across grade levels so that students can transition successfully as they move to a new school or program. There are classes in the Early Learning Center that exceed the required teacher student ratios and age span requirements and there are a number of classes for older students that exceed regulations in the size of instructional groups of eligible students.

The district ensures that school sponsored extracurricular activities do not discriminate or exclude students on the basis of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, or homelessness and the district receives assurance that employers who recruit at the school do not discriminate. The district has integrated SDFSCA activities with other federal programs. Title I programs implement effective instructional strategies based on scientifically based research and students receiving Title I services have opportunities to participate in extended day or year programs offered by the district.

Chapter 74 vocational technical education programs do not meet all Chapter 74-required program of study and methods of instruction requirements. Additionally, some career and technical education programs are in need of curriculum alignment with national industry standards. Many career and technical education programs need new equipment, supplies and maintenance of existing equipment. Postsecondary articulation agreements exist but few students and faculty are aware of the agreements.

Component V: Student Support Services

Has the district ensured that all students have equal access to programs and services? Does the district provide support to students who need it?

The district has policies that meet the requirements for disciplining a student with a disability. Interviews, however, indicate that policy is not always followed in that students with disabilities have been suspended for more than 10 school days without services and the Team did not always meet to determine if the student's behavior was a manifestation of the disability. Student handbooks do not contain information regarding appropriate procedures for the discipline of students with IEPs and students with Section 504 Accommodation Plans. Interviews indicate that there are students in substantially separate programs or collaborative programs who do not have access to all programs, services and activities.

Written materials and other media used to publicize a school does not always include a notice that the school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, religion, or sexual orientation.

Some career and technical education programs have a disproportionate number of special education students. For example, a disproportionately high percentage (45%) of the horticulture program enrollment is comprised of students with disabilities. There are no special education staff assigned to assist students with disabilities in career and technical education shops. Efforts are being made to provide supplemental services to English language learner students but this is scheduled for implementation in the next school year. Appropriate non-English language signage is not in evidence in the school.

Component VI: Faculty, Staff and Administration

Does the district maintain licensed staff in the specific program areas, provide supervision of aides and tutors, and provide ongoing professional development? Are program leadership and oversight effective? Are the district's personnel procedures non-discriminatory and does it seek to recruit employees from all groups?

The district has policies and procedures that are consistent with special education regulations, but the review of records indicated that there is not oversight to ensure consistent implementation of these policies and procedures. There is effective communication within buildings regarding the administration of special education programs and services; however, there is not enough communication among building principals and administrators of special education to ensure smooth transition between grade levels and programs. The district has provided civil rights training, but staff members have not received training in all required special education topics. Employment practices are free of discrimination.

The SDFS Coordinator meets with all the Program Directors, Administrators and the Coordinators of Title I, Title II and Title IV to address their specific needs and collaborate in the development and implementation of all programs and activities for Attleboro students, staff and parents.

All professional staff providing Title I services are appropriately licensed and the district allocates the required amount of Title I funds for professional development. All CTE teachers are appropriately licensed except the teacher in the horticulture program.

Component VII: School Facilities

Does the district maintain accessible facilities that are conducive to learning, facilitate integration, and provide equal opportunity for students to achieve?

The placement of some classrooms used for the instruction of students with disabilities does not maximize the inclusion of these students into the life of the school nor does the placement of these classes minimize the separation or stigmatization of eligible students.

Some CTE programs do not have adequate facilities and equipment, supplies, or shop/laboratory organization.

Component VIII: Program Plan and Evaluation

Does the district evaluate its programs in accordance with regulatory requirements? Does it use the results of its evaluations to improve programs? Do parents have opportunities for input on program needs, program implementation, and program evaluation and improvement?

The district does not always use information that it gathers from their special education evaluation process to identify programs, services and administrative areas that need improvement. They do not always use the information to develop or modify programs to meet the long-term needs of the students as they advance to new schools within the district. The district does not have implementation practices in place to ensure that teachers regularly review educational materials for bias and discrimination and there is no formal institutional evaluation completed annually to ensure all students have equal access to all programs.

Attleboro has a process in place to determine the current level of substance abuse and violence amongst the student population in the community and they design substance and violence prevention programs and strategies based on a thorough and well defined need assessment. An evaluation process is employed to measure the district's progress towards achieving the goals and objectives of the Safe and Drug Free Schools programs.

A needs assessment and a data analysis are conducted annually in each Title I school to determine the types of programs and services to be provided to parents and students.

The district has a method of measuring Perkins and Chapter 74 program performance, however, the evaluation results have been uneven.

Component IX: Record keeping

Does the District maintain required records and documentation for each program area? Are entitlement grants appropriately designed, amended, and monitored? Does the district use federal grant funds in accordance with statutory fund-use rules, including supplement not supplant provisions where applicable? Does the district meet applicable maintenance of effort requirements?

The district's special education entitlement grants are appropriately designed, amended and monitored.

Appropriate accounting and budget procedures are being implemented to insure that programs and expenditures are related to the purpose and intent of the Safe and Drug Free Schools and Communities Act. The district conveys a clear message of zero tolerance and that acts of violence and the illegal use of drugs are wrong and harmful, but there should be further dialogue regarding enforcing the smoking policies. The set of assurances includes all the required information for keeping the schools safe and drug-free.

The programmatic and budgetary sections of the Title I grant are not amended according to the procedures and timelines required by the Department of Education. The monitoring of the grant should be ongoing to ensure its full implementation. The district does not have the required documentation pertaining to job descriptions of Title I staff members, logs that document each split-funded staff members' time spent on Title I activities, and supplement, not supplant policy and procedures.

Records for students in CTE programs lacked all required documentation.

Network Day School Program:

The Network is a day school program administered by the Attleboro Public Schools currently with provisional approval by the Department. The program was visited, staff members were interviewed and records were reviewed. The program provides services for 38 students who were unsuccessful in other public school settings. They receive instruction in small groups taught by a teacher and a paraprofessional. One student attends one class at Attleboro High School and students in this program have access to 'My Turn' for school-to-work opportunities. Although currently located in an inaccessible armory building in Attleboro, it will move to a new location in September 2004.

Bi-County Collaborative:

There are two Bi-County Collaborative programs housed in Attleboro. The Center for the Development of Essential Life Roles, located at Attleboro High School, is a program for students age 14-22 who have social or emotional needs that interfere with their learning. There are 14 students in the program in two classrooms, each having one teacher and a paraprofessional. The on-site Team met with the program director, visited the classrooms and reviewed records. The Team found that the location of this classroom does not facilitate the inclusion of the students into the life of the school. Many students in this program have a need for close supervision, but other than one student who takes part in the auto shop, there is no opportunity provided for these students to interact with other students and to be a part of the school.

The Secondary Alternative Program, a day school program located at the Finberg School, is not handicapped accessible, but the collaborative submitted a plan to address program accessibility in conjunction with the day school program approval process. The program has students age 9-17 and each class has 7-10 students taught by a teacher and a paraprofessional. Members of the on-site Team met with the program director, visited the classrooms and reviewed records. This program provides emotional and behavior supports for students and individualized academic programming based on Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks. The onsite Team commended the creative techniques employed by staff to transition students within the program to a less restrictive setting.

DEFINITION OF TERMS
FOR THE RATING OF EACH COMPLIANCE CRITERION

Commendable	Any requirement or aspect of a requirement implemented in an exemplary manner significantly beyond the requirements of law or regulation.
Implemented	The requirement is substantially met.
Implementation in Progress	The criterion includes one or more new state English Learner Education requirements (G.L. c 71A), the substantive provisions of which went into effect at the beginning of the 2003-2004 school year. The district is currently engaged in staff training and/or is beginning implementation practices for these new requirements which the Department's onsite team anticipates will result in substantial compliance by the end of the current school year.
Partially Implemented	The requirement, in one or several important aspects, is not entirely met.
Not Implemented	The requirement is totally or substantially not met.
Not Applicable	The requirement does not apply to the school district or charter school.

Several key areas of compliance with federal special education requirements have been highlighted in SHADED TEXT in the Program Review Criteria. These highlighted areas are included in the Massachusetts Continuous Improvement Plan (CIP) that is being used by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP), to track over time this state's compliance in these key areas.

COMPONENT I: ASSESSMENT OF STUDENTS

The criteria in this component examine whether the District has implemented an assessment system that uses appropriate instruments, conducted according to the specified timelines and covering the appropriate content areas to determine instructional needs of students for the program areas listed below:

- Career and Technical Education (Report Issues # P 1-4)

Department of Education Findings:

Based on interviews and documentation, there is strong evidence of meaningful consultation with community agencies and participation by community agencies in focus groups and meetings regarding the prevalence of drug use and violence-related issues in the community. Attleboro has established an Advisory Council that meets four times a year with additional meetings for various workgroups. Community people/agencies involved include, but are not limited to: Norfolk DA’s Office, police and fire departments, private school, parents, New Hope Inc., Sturdy Memorial Hospital, YMCA, Norfolk Council Consortium, cable station, school staff, students, state police, Attleboro School Based Clinic, Teen Youth Center and the Caron Foundation. Attleboro’s district-wide network of community agencies is very aware of the goals and objectives of the local Safe and Drug Free Schools programs and participates with the Advisory Council in the development, implementation and evaluation of the grant.

Based on documentation and interviews, there is evidence that the district promotes parent involvement and a limited number of parents participated in focus groups/meetings regarding the prevalence of drugs and violence among youth in the community. The majority of parents were not aware of the goals and objectives, provided status reports, program outcomes and accomplishment of the SDFS program. The district needs to design training/programs/activities specifically for parents. The size and composition of instructional groupings for eligible students receiving services outside the general education classroom are compatible with the methods and goals stated in each student's IEP. 2. Instructional grouping size requirements are maximum sizes and the school district exercises judgment in determining appropriate group size and supports for smaller instructional groups serving students with complex special needs. 3. When eligible students are assigned to instructional groupings outside of the general education classroom for 60% or less of the students' school schedule, group size does not exceed eight (8) students with a certified special educator, twelve (12) students if the certified special educator is assisted by one aide, and sixteen (16) students if the certified special educator is assisted by two aides. 4. For eligible students served in settings that are substantially separate, serving solely students with disabilities for more than 60% of the students' school schedule, the district provides instructional groupings that do not exceed eight (8) students to one certified special educator or twelve (12) students to a certified special educator and an aide. 5. After the school year has begun, if instructional groups have reached maximum size as delineated in paragraphs 3 and 4 of this criterion, the Administrator of Special Education and the certified special educator(s) providing services in an instructional group may decide to increase the size of an instructional grouping by no more than two additional students if the additional students have compatible instructional needs and then can receive services in their neighborhood school. 6. In such cases, the Administrator provides written notification to the Department and the parents of all group members of the decision to increase the instructional group size and the reasons for such decision. Such increased instructional group sizes are in effect only for the year in which they are initiated. 7. The district takes all steps necessary to reduce the instructional groups to the sizes outlined in paragraph 3 or 4 of this criterion for subsequent years. Such steps are documented by the district.

Department of Education Findings:

All students programs have access to computer technology for research and short teacher-assigned papers and presentations. However, some of the technology at the school is quite out of date and access to state of the art equipment within classes is limited. For instance, certain classes have only one computer for the entire class. On the positive side, there are computer labs throughout the school, but some labs and classes need new equipment. Also, the Graphic Design program has recently been equipped with a classroom full of Apple G4 computers. Given the fact that some classes need new equipment, while others have state of the art systems, this criterion is partially implemented.

Some programs have access to current technology, but not in all programs. For example, students in Graphic Arts have access to recent Apple Computer models, but the Graphic Design program needs a new printing press to give students exposure to the latest print technology procedures. In cases where technology is available, it is used to improve career and technical education, but the lack of current equipment in many programs would make this criterion partially implemented.

All other career and technical education programs lack the equipment and supplies to ensure that students receive technical training that meet industry standards. There are a number of examples in which funding limitations have curtailed instruction or negatively impacted a program. Over the past three years only 63.64% of students with disabilities and 76.47% of economically disadvantaged students attained a high school diploma as compared to the state goal of 91.23%. Total nontraditional enrollment in career and technical education programs was 5.36% compared to the goal of 9.43%. Only part of this criterion is being met.

SE 50	Responsibilities of the School Principal and Administrator of Special Education Principal: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Instructional support. The principal in each of the district’s schools promotes instructional practices responsive to student needs and ensures that adequate instructional support is available for students and teachers. Instructional support includes remedial instruction for students, consultative services for teachers, availability of reading instruction at the elementary level, appropriate services for linguistic minority students, and other services consistent with effective educational practices and the requirements of MGL c. 71B, §2. The principal consults with the Administrator of Special Education regarding accommodations and interventions for students. Such efforts and their results are documented and placed in the student record. Additionally, when an individual student is referred for an evaluation to determine eligibility for special education, the principal ensures that documentation on the use of instructional support services for the student is provided as part of the evaluation information reviewed by the Team when determining eligibility. 2. Curriculum Accommodation Plan. The principal implements a curriculum accommodation plan adopted by the district to ensure that all efforts have been made to meet the needs of diverse learners in the general education program. The plan assists the regular classroom teacher in analyzing and accommodating diverse learning styles of all children in the regular classroom and in providing appropriate services and support within the regular education program including, but not limited to, direct and systemic instruction in reading and provision of services to address the needs of children whose behavior may interfere with learning. The Plan includes teacher training in (1) analyzing and accommodating diverse learning styles of all students in order to achieve an objective of inclusion in the regular classroom of students with diverse learning styles; (2) methods of collaboration among teachers, paraprofessionals and teacher assistants to accommodate such styles; and (3) training in the provision of pre-referral services within regular education, teacher mentoring and collaboration and parental involvement. 3. Coordination with special education. The principal with the assistance of the Administrator of Special Education coordinates the delivery and supervision of special education services within each school building. 4. Educational services in home or hospital. Upon receipt of a physician’s written order verifying that any student enrolled in a public school or placed by the public school in a private setting must remain at home or in a hospital on a day or overnight basis, or any combination of both, for medical reasons and for a period of not less than fourteen school days in any school year, the principal arranges for provision of educational services in the home or hospital. Department of Education Findings:

Some programs meet this standard. (One instructor participated in the 501 OSHA Construction Course, but does not share this information with other staff or trained students). Other programs are in need of new equipment, supplies, shop/laboratory reorganization, upgrading and cleanup (clutter in front of kill switches, inadequate heat and refrigeration, limited supplies, inadequate staff for some vocational programs, etc.).

GENERAL FINDINGS

A safety plan should be developed for all career and technical education programs.

- Emergency telephone numbers should be laminated and posted adjacent to telephones located in all shops/labs.
- In all shops, an arrow initiating at a height of nine feet above each panic button should be painted in fluorescent red.
- First-Aid training for all faculty members should be updated yearly.
- Yellow safety lines should delineate safety areas around appropriate machinery in all shops/labs.

- Appropriate signage should be added for non-English speakers.

AUTOMOTIVE TECHNOLOGY

- The Panic Button located on the (North) wall should be relocated adjacent to the garage door on the (East) wall to allow for more accessibility.
 - In order to maintain proper safety standards the current enrollment of 20 students warrants an aide or an additional teacher.

CARPENTRY/CABINETMAKING

- A GFCI should be installed in the outlet adjacent to the water cooler.
- A fire blanket should be installed.
- Panic buttons in the shop area should be cleared to ensure access.

CULINARY ARTS

- A GFCI outlet should be installed in the outlet adjacent to the sink located in the kitchen area.
- The air exchange unit should be made operable or replaced with a functioning unit.
- The heating unit is currently inoperable and should be refurbished or replaced.
- The refrigeration unit is not dependable and poses a health concern. It should be refurbished or replaced without delay.

CHILD CARE

- The ceiling area adjacent to the windows needs repair. Currently plaster chips are dropping on the rug posing a potential health hazard.
- A safety issue arises when the health care instructor must take the entire class on the public hallway when an individual student requires the use of the lavatory. There should be, at a minimum, a teacher aide for this program.

ELECTRICAL

- The panic button plunger cap on the East exterior wall is missing.
- To allow for accessibility, the Panic Button located on the (West) wall should be relocated on the (North) of the adjacent support column.
- A fire blanket should be installed.

GREENHOUSE

- A fire alarm warning must be installed in both greenhouses. (The greenhouses are currently not connected to the fire alarm system of the school. When the fire alarm sounds, teachers and students in the greenhouses cannot hear the alarm).
- Fire instructions and emergency telephone numbers should be laminated to insure legibility in excessive moisture conditions.
- A protective safety barrier should be constructed in greenhouse #2 around the heating unit.

GRAPHIC COMMUNICATIONS

- Flammable liquids should be stored in an American National Standards Institute (ANSI) approved steel cabinet within the storage closet.
- A lock should be installed on door of storage closet.
- Eyewash station that meets ANSI standards should be installed within the shop.
- Surplus machinery currently stored in the storage area should be discarded.

GRAPHIC DESIGN

- Surplus computers currently located in storage area should be discarded.

MACHINE TECH

- Remove all obstructions hindering the proper use of Panic Buttons in the shop area.
- Install fire blanket.

WELDING/METAL FABRICATION

- Remove obstructions that hinder the proper use of panic buttons and fire extinguishers located in the shop area.
- Surplus equipment should be removed from floor of shop area.
- Power emergency button in center of shop should be "secured" on adjoining support column.
- Power unit in ventilation system should be refurbished or replaced. It currently poses a potential health hazard when welding is conducted in the shop area.

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

Employer provided safety training should be done earlier in students' cooperative education participation. There is no systematic safety review by technical education teachers prior to the students being placed on their cooperative education assignment. The Cooperative Education Coordinator does make some site visits but he had still not visited all sites at the time of the review (May 2004). Some teachers have also made site visits, but the establishment of a more formal safety review and visitation schedule is recommended.

COMPONENT VIII: PROGRAM PLAN AND EVALUATION

The criteria in this component examine whether the district has written program plans that are evaluated according to specific regulatory requirements and whether parents have opportunities for input on needs, program implementation, evaluation, and improvement in the program areas listed below:

- Special Education (Report Issue # SE 56)
- Civil Rights Methods of Administration (MOA) (Report Issues MOA 24-25)
 - Title I (Report Issues # TI 32-38)
 - Safe and Drug Free Schools (Report Issue # SDF 5-8)
 - Career and Technical Education (Report Issue # CTE 21)

The district uses information it gathers from annual IEP reviews to measure the effectiveness of special education programs, and identifies programs, services and administrative areas that need improvement or must be developed. 4. As part of these evaluation procedures, the district measures the success of programs based on students' local and statewide assessment results, drop out rates and graduation rates for special education students. State Regulations Chapter 71B Chapter 71, sec. 59C Federal Requirements 300.137

Department of Education Findings:

Although there is a process to evaluate the effectiveness of programs, there is not useful long-range planning and self-evaluation to ensure that placements and programs are provided to successfully meet student needs as they transition between levels. Interviews indicate that individuals charged with transition planning for students do not have ample information about the programs and services that are in place in other schools and they do not have input into long term planning so that programs are developed in-district to meet the needs of their students.

Department of Education Findings:

Based on documentation and interviews, there is evidence that Attleboro has a process in place to determine the current level of substance abuse and violence amongst the student population in the community. The process includes administering the Youth Risk Behavior Survey biannually, focus groups/meetings in the community with parents, community leaders, teachers, administrators and Advisory Council members. Furthermore, schools disciplinary records at all levels, nurses' logs, middle school safe schools survey, law enforcement incident reports and data from health agencies and community agencies are reviewed and analyzed. There is appropriate documentation to support the statistical and incident information reported in the objective analysis section of the district's most recent grant application. Lastly, there is evidence that the objective analysis was based upon ongoing local assessment of activities and programs.

Department of Education Findings:

The design of the substance and violence prevention programs and strategies are based on a thorough and well-defined need assessment of the objective data about drug and violence problems among youth in the district. Based on interviews and documentation, selected programs and activities respond to identified needs. These programs are based on scientifically based research that complies with the Principles of Effectiveness. Some of these programs are Open Circle, Life Skills, Bullying, Teen Dating Violence Prevention, Community Work/ Juvenile Justice Program, THTM, Towards No Tobacco Use (TNT), Aggressors, Victims and Bystanders and Project Alert. All students participate in all activities and all programs are adapted for language limited students and/or special needs students when needed. Department of Education Findings:

Based on documentation and interviews, the district's evaluation design includes process, outcome and impact assessment. An evaluation process is employed to measure the district's progress towards achieving its goals and objectives. The SDFS coordinator, Advisory Council, teachers, administrators and other program coordinators have developed an assessment to evaluate the effectiveness of the programs. There is documentation that some evaluation results are used to refine, improve and strengthen programming and implementation. Evaluation results and the goals and objectives of the SDFS program are disseminated to the Advisory Council and administrator but are not reported consistently to the public throughout the year. Some of this information has been disseminated via the Attleboro web site, newsletters, PTO meetings, church bulletins, the Sun Chronicle, Pawtucket Times, My Backyard, library postings and the local community access channel.

	Rating: Partially Implemented District Response Required: Yes

Department of Education Findings:

The school system does have a method of measuring Perkins and Chapter 74 performance but actual performance has been uneven.

- Under Perkins Core Indicator I, the entire student population met the standard, but among special populations, only 26% of disabled students passed the Math MCAS, failing to achieve the standard.
- Under Perkins Core Indicator II, all students met the standard, but among special populations only 63.64% of disabled students and 76.47% of economically disadvantaged students attained a high school diploma as compared to the state standard of 91.23%.
- Under Core Indicator IV--The three-year nontraditional enrollment average is 5.36% compared to the state goal of 9.43%.

Attleboro did not attain its performance goals for Perkins Core Indicator III.

- The district's positive placement rate was 93.96% for all vocational students. The state goal is 95.58%.
- The positive placement rate for students with disabilities was 76.19%.

- The positive placement rate for economically disadvantaged students was 88.89%.
- However, performance under Core Indicator III was at 100% for the past two years for all populations, showing great improvement for this indicator.

Chapter 74 Outcomes:

Overall, the school district met the state standard of 70%. The three-year average of Attleboro High School is 71.98 %. Five vocational technical education programs failed to meet the 70% positive placement standard: Child Care, Carpentry, Automotive Technology, Graphic Arts, and Machinist/Machine Technology.

Department of Education Findings:

Record reviews showed only minimal compliance with this criterion. Records must include tests, assessments, career development plans, and other indications of student counseling. Skills to be acquired on the cooperative education site should be listed on the cooperative education agreement. The current written agreement should be revised to include all required signatures, information about child labor laws, and documentation of workers' compensation coverage.

APPENDIX:
SCHOOL DISTRICT PROFILE INFORMATION

The information which is provided in this Appendix was drawn from data supplied by the school district. The Department's visiting team carefully reviewed this data as part of its planning for the onsite visit and in preparing this Coordinated Program Review Report. This district-wide information, together with more detailed school building data, is periodically updated by the school district and is available in an evercurrent form on the Department's internet web site at <<http://profiles.doe.mass.edu/>>.

Profiles

Introduction

The Massachusetts Department of Education collects information about schools and districts. Some of the information collected is published in the School and District Profiles. The information provides a snapshot of the educational picture in communities across the state.

Districts view, add, update and delete their own district and school information over the web to make sure that the information is as up-to-date and accurate as possible. In addition, the general public will be able to view Directory information about each school district in the state. Individuals can retrieve for themselves information such as school personnel, school programs (e.g. School Choice and TBE) and the location of specialized services such as Special Education Schools, Collaboratives, and Vocational Training Programs.

The list below provides an explanation of information presented in the Profiles.

The electronic version of this district's or charter school's profile information is available at:
<http://profiles.doe.mass.edu/home.asp?mode=ot&view=&ot=5>

Organization Types

Approved Special Education Schools	Responsible for providing an education for students with disabilities. A school district (LEA) may place a student in an out-of-state program if it believes that such program is the most appropriate for the student.
Charter School	Public schools that are created by parents, teachers, businesses, and community leaders and have the freedom to organize their activities around a core mission, curriculum, or teaching method. Their autonomy gives them the freedom to create their own budgets and to hire and fire teachers and staff.
Collaborative	Collaboratives are formed through an agreement among two or more school committees to provide education for their member school systems. Agreements must be filed with the Commissioner of DOE. A Board representative of each member school committee manages them.
Collaborative Programs	Regardless of the size of the individual collaborative, each school provides programs that its member districts demand.
Private School	A non-publicly funded school that provides educational services directly to attending students.
Public School	Public schools are administered by a Public School District, and provide educational services directly to attending students. Expenses are paid by state appropriation.

Public School Districts	An administrative unit responsible for managing primary and secondary school services within a defined geographical boundary. There can be two types of School Districts, Operational and Non-Operational district, and expenses are paid by state appropriation.

The Data Directory Information

DOE Code:

The DOE Code, also referred to as the Organization Code, is an eight digit numeric code assigned by the Massachusetts Department of Education to every organization listed in the Directory Profiles, including every district and school in the Commonwealth. For districts and schools, the first four digits represent the District Code and the last four digits represent the School Code. Thus the organization code "02660505" stands for "0266" (Sharon Public Schools) + "0505" (Sharon High). If a form requires the 8-digit DOE school code it is calling for the entire organization code.

Prior to the 2001 school year, organization codes contained six digits (three for the district and three for the school.) With the exception of some special needs schools, the eight digit codes are the same as the six digit codes with one zero added before the district code and another zero added before the school code. Thus, Sharon High's old six digit organizational code was 266505.

Please Note: The Department's Organization Code is not the same as the Institution codes assigned by the College Board for SAT and AP results. Nor is it the same as the NCES code assigned to Massachusetts schools by the U.S. Department of Education.

Grades/Schools:

This section displays the number and grade range of elementary, middle/junior high and high schools in the district, as well as the total number of schools in the district and the grade range of the school system. An elementary range beginning with "PK" indicates the district has pre-kindergarten. A high school range ending in "13" or "14" indicates the district has a post-graduate program. Kindergarten starting age indicates the age as of a particular date at which children are eligible to begin kindergarten. NOTE: District level data only.

Services:

- Inter-district Choice: indicates whether students from other districts may enroll in the district through the state school choice program, which is voluntary and on a space-available basis.
- Intra-district Choice: indicates whether the district has a school choice program within the school district for students who live in the district.
- Vocational Education: indicates whether the district operates a Chapter 74 approved vocational education program.
- Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE): indicates whether the district operates a TBE program. Under Massachusetts law, a district must provide a TBE program in a particular language if there are 20 or more limited English proficient students in that particular language group enrolled in the district. Limited English proficient students are students whose first language is not English and who cannot perform ordinary class work in English.

- METCO: indicates whether the district participates in the state METCO program, which promotes voluntary desegregation by enrolling minority students from Boston and Springfield in suburban schools.

Relationships:

- Member of Regional Districts: For local school districts, indicates the name(s) of any academic and/or vocational regional district(s) of which the local school district is a member. For regional school districts, indicates the names of member local school districts. A regional school district provides educational services to more than one town. NOTE: District level data only.

Enrollment/Indicators

Enrollment by Grade

Indicates the enrollment for students in grades Pre-kindergarten (PK), kindergarten through 12, Special Education beyond grade 12 (SP), Career and Technical Education beyond grade 12 (CT) for the listed school year.

Enrollment by Race/Ethnicity

Indicates the percent of enrollment by race/ethnicity for the listed school year. The reporting categories are those used by the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

Selected Populations

Indicates the percent of enrollment represented by students in special education programs*, students who are limited English proficient, and students eligible to receive free or reduced price lunch*. Data are for the listed school year.

Dropout Rate:

Indicates the percentage of students in grades 9-12 who dropped out of school between July 1 and June 30 prior to the listed year and who did not return to school by October 1. Dropouts are defined as students who leave school prior to graduation for reasons other than transfer to another school.

Children Attending Public Schools

Indicates the percent of school-age children in a city or town attending public schools, for the listed school years. NOTE: District level data only.

Attendance/Exclusions:

Attendance rate indicates the average percentage of enrolled students, (grades 1-12), present in school for the listed school year. Student Exclusion (count) indicates the number of student exclusions that occurred during the listed school year. An exclusion is defined as the removal of a student for disciplinary purposes permanently, indefinitely or for more than ten consecutive school days. Student Exclusion (rate) indicates the rate of exclusions per 1000 students.

Technology:

Indicates the number of students for every one computer and the percent of classrooms with Internet access. Data are for the listed school year; "DNR" appears for schools and districts which did not yet report data.

Plans of High School Graduates:

Indicates the post-graduate intentions of students for the listed school year.
Test Results

Massachusetts Comprehensive Assessment System (MCAS):

- Shows percentage of students at each performance level for the current year
- Select a year to view past year's performance level data
- Select annual comparisons or the  icon for a graphical display of MCAS results
- For 2002 only: view Cycle II Performance Rating Reports
- For 2001 only: select a 'Grade and Subject' to view test item analysis data

SAT: The district or school's SAT results are displayed for the listed years.

Finance - District level data only.

Per Pupil Expenditures: are calculated by dividing a district's operating costs by its average pupil membership. Operating costs include expenditures for administration, instruction, pupil services, transportation, plant maintenance, and fixed charges. These costs do not include capital outlay and long-term interest on school debt. Average pupil membership includes students who receive services in the district's schools, as well as students receiving home or hospital instruction. Data for regular education, special education, bilingual education and vocational education students are provided in addition to the total for all day programs, for the listed school years.

Teacher Salary: total teaching salaries, divided by the number of full-time equivalent teachers, equals the average teacher salary.

Foundation Budget Spending Comparison: The education reform act established a foundation budget for each school district. This budget represents the minimum level of spending needed to provide an adequate education for the district's students. The foundation budget is made up of 19 separate categories. The chart shows the district's actual spending in each category for the listed school year as a percentage of the district's foundation budget. If the percentage exceeds 100%, the district spent more in the category than suggested by the foundation budget. If the percentage is less than 100%, the district spent less. Significant variations between local spending and the foundation budget, or between local spending and the statewide averages, should be reviewed closely. In some cases, the differences may be due to unique circumstances and needs within the district. In other cases, the differences may suggest potential areas for review and improvement.
