MASSACHUSETTS DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

COORDINATED PROGRAM REVIEW REPORT

Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School

OVERVIEW OF COORDINATED PROGRAM REVIEW PROCEDURES

As one part of its Accountability System, the Department of Education oversees local compliance with education requirements through the Coordinated Program Review System (CPR). All reviews include the following selected requirements:

- special education under the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA-2004), and M.G.L. Chapter 71B (Chapter 766 of the Acts of 1972). Note that until regulations under IDEA-2004 are final, the Department has the responsibility of enforcing regulations under IDEA-1997 that do not conflict with IDEA-2004; therefore both IDEA-1997 regulations and sections of IDEA-2004 are cited in the special education standards.
- federal civil rights requirements under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Equal Educational Opportunities Act of 1974, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, together with related state requirements under M.G.L. Chapter 76, Section 5 (Chapter 622 of the Acts of 1971) and other Massachusetts General Laws.
- targeted standards from the Board of Education's Physical Restraint regulations (603 CMR 46.00).
- targeted standards from the Board of Education's Student Learning Time regulations (603 CMR 27.00).
- targeted standards from the federal McKinney-Vento Homeless Education Assistance Improvements Act of 2001 (included in the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001).
- provisions of M.G.L. c. 71A, the state law that governs the provision of education to limited English proficient students. Note that due to the voters' approval in 2002 of an initiative petition entitled "Question 2," M.G.L. c. 71A has been significantly amended. Under the amended Chapter 71A, limited English proficient students, now referred to as "English learners," must be provided instruction in sheltered English immersion or two-way bilingual programs unless they have received a waiver. As a result of this change in the law, the Department's Coordinated Program Review standards under Chapter 71A were significantly revised for the 2003-2004 school year. All districts that enroll limited English proficient students will be reviewed using these updated standards during the 2005-2006 school year.

Additional program areas reviewed during the Coordinated Program Review visits in selected districts may include:

- Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, including other related grants funded by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001;
- Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act;
- Career and Technical Education requirements under the federal Perkins Vocational and Technical Education Act and M.G.L. c. 74;
- Innovative assistance programs funded under Title V of the No Child Left Behind Act; and
- Nutrition Programs and Services.

The Department's 2005-2006 schedule of Coordinated Program Reviews is posted on the Department's web site at <<<http://www.doe.mass.edu/pqa/review/cpr/schedule.html>>>. The statewide six-year Program Review cycle together with the Department's Mid-cycle Special Education follow-up monitoring schedule is posted at <<<http://www.doe.mass.edu/pqa/review/cpr/6yrcycle.html>>>.

Coordinated Program Review Elements{ TC "COORDINATED PROGRAM REVIEW ELEMENTS" \f C \l "1" }

Team: Depending upon the size of a school district and the number of program areas to be reviewed, a team of two to eight Department staff members, together with any necessary outside consultants, conducts a Coordinated Program Review over two to ten days in a school district or charter school.

Scope: Each school district and charter school in the Commonwealth is scheduled to receive a Coordinated Program Review every six years and a mid-cycle special education follow-up visit three years after the Coordinated Program Review; about seventy school districts and charter schools are scheduled for Coordinated Program Reviews in 2005-2006.

Content: The Program Review criteria encompass the required elements for the specific program areas. In the case of special education, the elements selected for the 2005-2006 reviews contain, at a minimum, those required by the federal Office for Special Education Programs (OSEP) and revised requirements included under IDEA-2004 as described in the Department's Special Education Advisories. Additionally, the 2005-2006 reviews incorporate state special education requirements as adopted by the Board of Education and effective on July 1, 2005. The Program Review compliance criteria selected in all of the regulated program areas are those that are most closely aligned with the goals of the Massachusetts Education Reform Act of 1993 and intended to promote high standards and achievement for all students.

Report: The Department's report is based on a review of written documentation and data regarding the operation of the district's programs, together with information gathered through the following Department program review methods:

- Interviews of administrative, instructional, and support staff across all grade levels.
- Interviews of parent advisory council (PAC) representatives and other interviews as requested by persons from the general public.
- Student record reviews in the program areas of special education, English learner education (c. 71A), Career and Technical Education, and Section 504 (student accommodation plans). A representative sample of student records is selected by the Department. Student records are examined by the onsite team using standard Department student record review procedures to make determinations regarding the implementation of procedural and programmatic requirements. Parents of students with disabilities whose files are selected for the record review, as well as the parents of an equal number of other students with disabilities, are sent a survey that solicits information regarding their experiences with the district's implementation of special education programs, related services and procedural requirements; parents of students with limited English proficiency whose files are selected for the record review are sent a survey of their experiences with the district's implementation of the English learner education program and related procedural requirements.

- Classroom and facilities observation. The onsite team visits a sample of instructional classrooms and other school facilities used in the delivery of programs and services to determine general levels of compliance with program requirements.

Collaborative programs and services. Where the district is a member of a collaborative approved by the Department of Education and is a site for programs or services operated by the collaborative, interviews, student record review, and classroom and facility observations are conducted for the collaborative.

Ratings. The onsite team gives a rating for each compliance criterion it reviews; those ratings are “Commendable,” “Implemented” (meaning at least substantially implemented), “Implementation in Progress,” “Partially Implemented,” “Not Implemented” (meaning at least substantially not implemented), and “Not Applicable.” “Implementation in Progress” is used for criteria containing new legal requirements and means that the district has implemented any old requirements contained in the criterion and is either training staff or beginning to implement the new requirements in such a way that the onsite team anticipates that the new requirements will be implemented by the end of the school year.

Findings. The onsite team includes a finding for each criterion that it rates “Commendable,” “Partially Implemented,” or “Not Implemented,” explaining the basis for the rating. It may also include findings for other criteria.

Executive Summary. Organized by the report components described on the next page, the Executive Summary summarizes the report’s major findings for each program reviewed Response: Where criteria are not implemented fully, the local district or charter school must propose corrective actions to bring those areas into compliance with the respective statutes or regulations. These corrective actions are subject to the Department’s review and approval.

The Department believes that the Coordinated Program Review process is a positive experience and that the Final Report is a helpful planning document for the continued development and improvement of programs and services in each school district, charter school, and educational collaborative.

REPORT INTRODUCTION{ TC "REPORT INTRODUCTION" \f C \l "1" }

A five-member Massachusetts Department of Education team visited Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School during the week of November 28, 2005 to evaluate the implementation of selected criteria in the program areas of Special Education, Civil Rights Methods of Administration, English Language Education and Career and Vocational Technical Education. The team appreciated the opportunity to interview staff and parents, to observe classroom facilities and to review the programs underway in the district. The onsite team would like to commend the following areas that were brought to its attention and that it believes have a significant and positive impact on the delivery of educational services for students enrolled in the Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School. These areas are as follows:

The district consistently completes all consented to assessments within required timelines and each assessment report includes all required elements. Following completion of assessments, and prior to the Team meeting, the district automatically forwards all reports to parents which affords parents the opportunity to review the assessments and follow-up with the assessors should they have questions or require clarification of results.

Parent participation is a priority for the district. The district distributes a parent survey prior to all Team meetings to elicit parent information and input. Parents reported that the district has a high level of respect for parents and students and have ongoing communication with them. Parents also reported that their questions, concerns and suggestions are genuinely considered at Team meetings and they feel as though they are key members of the Team. The district has well attended parent advisory councils and the district actively recruits parents to participate in all aspects of their students' education.

It is evident that the district's staff and student body has adopted a philosophy that students are viewed as individuals and programming is developed based on each student's interests and goals. District staff repeatedly reported that all students are respected and accepted for their uniqueness rather than identified by their abilities or disabilities. These practices promote and provide a collaborative educational environment that is welcoming, safe and fully integrated.

Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School demonstrates the coordination of various initiatives and funding streams to provide opportunities for increased student achievement. This includes Title I services provided during the school day as well as before and after school, the summer Jump-Start Program, various MCAS tutoring opportunities, and the CCC Success Maker Lab.

Some of the commendations noted above are repeated within the body of the Department's report under the appropriate compliance criteria.

The Department is submitting the following Coordinated Program Review Report containing findings made pursuant to this onsite visit. In preparing this report, the team reviewed extensive written documentation regarding the operation of the district's programs, together with information gathered by means of following Department program review methods:

- Interviews of 14 administrative staff.
- Interviews of 57 teaching and support services staff across all levels.
- Interviews of two special education parent advisory council (PAC) representatives.
- Interviews of three CVTE parent advisory committee members.

- Interviews of 20 CVTE students.
- Interviews of two Title I students.
- Interviews of three CVTE parents.
- Interviews of two Title I parents.
- Interview of one school council member.
- Interviews of two cooperative education employers.
- Student record reviews: A sample of 25 student records special education records were selected by the Department. Student records were first examined by local staff, whose findings were then verified by the onsite team using standard Department of Education student record review procedures to make determinations regarding the implementation of procedural and programmatic requirements. A sample of 20 general education student records were reviewed by Department of Education career/vocational technical education liaisons. A sample of 30 cooperative education student records were reviewed by Department of Education career/vocational technical education liaisons.
- Parent surveys: 60 parents of students with disabilities were sent surveys that solicited information regarding their experiences with the district's implementation of special education programs, related services and procedural requirements. 20 of these parent surveys were returned to the Department of Education for review by the onsite team.
- Observation of classrooms and other facilities. A sample of five special education instructional classrooms, 12 shops and 12 other school facilities used in the delivery of programs and services were visited to determine general levels of compliance with program requirements.

The report includes findings in the program areas reviewed organized under nine components . These components are listed in the executive summary on the following pages. The findings in each program area explain the “ratings, ”determinations by the team about the implementation status of the criteria reviewed. The ratings indicate those criteria that were found by the team to be substantially “Implemented” or implemented in a “Commendable” manner. (Refer to the “Definition of Terms” section of the report.) Where criteria were found to be either "Partially Implemented" or "Not Implemented," the district or charter school must propose to the Department corrective actions to bring those areas into compliance with the controlling statute or regulation. In some instances the team may have rated a requirement as “Implemented” but made a specific comment on the district’s implementation methods that also may require response from the district or charter school.

Districts are expected to incorporate the corrective action into their district and school improvement plans, including their professional development plans.

COORDINATED PROGRAM REVIEW REPORT{ TC "EXECUTIVE SUMMARY OF REPORT" \\FC\I "1" }

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School

The following summary organized under each of the nine overarching Coordinated Program Review components synthesizes the findings for criteria included in the Coordinated Program Review as they respond to essential questions that the Department has formulated for each of the components of the report. Note that a more detailed discussion of the onsite team's findings, together with the specific legal standards for each program area included in this review, follows this summary.

Component I: Assessment of Students{ TC "Component I: Assessment of Students" \\FC\I "2" }

Has the district implemented an assessment system that uses appropriate instruments, is conducted according to the specified timelines, and covers the appropriate content areas to determine instructional needs of students?

The district has developed and implemented policies and procedures for the completion of assessments of students. The district consistently completes all consented to assessments and automatically provides a copy of the reports to parents prior to Team meetings. All special education students participate in MCAS testing and IEPs include MCAS accommodations as required. Review of IEPs indicates that MCAS accommodations are inconsistent with accommodations provided in the student's regular setting.

Transition activities are clearly documented in student records and on IEP's. Each student, regardless of age, is encouraged to participate in Team meetings and the development of IEP's. Students and parents are provided with a survey prior to the Team meeting that assists them in identifying preferences, interests and areas of concern. Student participation in these activities is key to the development and implementation of IEPs. The district consistently makes 688 Referrals to outside agencies if services are going to be required and participation by outside agency representatives is high. Age of majority is discussed within required timelines and the district articulates the student's decision on the IEP and in the student record. Review of student records indicates that the IEP vision statement does not always incorporate the student's preferences and interests. Further, IEP's do not always reflect age specific considerations related to transition activities.

The district consistently meets timeline requirements related to the identification and determination of eligibility for special education services, completion of annual reviews, three-year reevaluations and independent educational evaluations. The district has developed procedures for the excusal of Team members that meet IDEA 2004 requirements and the district is in the process of fully training all special education staff on these requirements. Record review and interviews indicate that re-evaluation Team meetings do not always include a regular education teacher, or when needed, a school psychologist, school adjustment counselor or speech language pathologist resulting in Team meetings that do not always include an individual who can interpret assessment results. In addition, there are times when individuals identified with the authority to commit resources must seek approval from a higher authority prior to committing district resources.

Progress reports are completed for all special education students and are provided to parents with the same frequency as parents of students who are not disabled. Review of progress reports indicates that not all reports reflect progress toward the goal and do not always indicate if progress is sufficient to enable the student to reach the goal by the end of the IEP period. The district has developed procedures and is in the process of training staff on providing a student with a summary of academic achievement and functional performance when the student has graduated or exceeded the age of eligibility.

Currently, the district has not identified any students who are limited English proficient (LEP). Although the district has developed procedures for the annual assessment of LEP students and all students participate in MCAS, personnel responsible for annually assessing LEP students using the MELA-O and MEPA have not been appropriately trained to administer these assessments. Further, the district has not established procedures for LEP students to opt out of the ELA portion of MCAS in their first year of enrollment.

Although the district collects student academic (MCAS, Stanford) and technical assessments (Exploratory Program), there is no consistent method by which these assessments are utilized to help guide student placement in a program of study. Student assignments to three exploratory programs appear somewhat random. Some students may be randomly placed in at least one nontraditional by gender program. Assessment criteria for students in exploratory programs are not consistent with the school's admission policy. There is no cooperative education technical skills acquisition planning or recording. Cooperative education placements lack justification that students will acquire skills not attainable in the shop/classroom.

Component II: Student Identification and Program Placement TC "Component II: Student Identification and Program Placement" \f C \l "2" }

Has the district followed procedures for student identification and placement into the program according to the criteria specified in law and/or regulations?

The district has developed and implemented procedures for student identification and placement into special education programs that meets all federal and state requirements. The district conducts ongoing child find activities to ensure all eligible students are identified.

Team meetings are convened to develop IEPs through use of assessment data and current performance levels. IEPs consistently reflect the student's course of study and support the student in achieving the goals established during development of the IEP. Following development of the IEP the district immediately provides the parent, and student when appropriate, with the proposed IEP and placement. Upon receipt of parent acceptance of an IEP, a copy of the IEP or an IEP summary is distributed to all relevant staff members who immediately implement all accepted elements. Review of student records indicates that not all goals, specifically reading goals, are individualized and benchmarks, at times, restate the IEP goal at varying intervals. In addition, interviews revealed extended school day and extended school year services are not routinely considered for every student when developing the IEP.

The Team, following development of the IEP, discusses and determines the least restrictive placement for students based on level of need. IEPs consistently contain a nonparticipation statement that indicates when a student is removed from the regular education setting, however, review of nonparticipation justification statements revealed that the statement is not always individualized and does not always state why removal from the regular education setting is critical to a student's programming needs.

Although the district has completed a home language survey for all students who are enrolled at the school, the district has not developed or implemented procedures for the identification or placement of LEP students. The district indicates that identified LEP students would be placed in a Sheltered English Immersion (SEI) setting, but currently there are no appropriately certified or trained teachers to teach in that setting. Further, the district has not developed an English language curriculum for LEP students' that is based on English Language Proficiency Benchmarks and Outcomes, waiver procedures, procedures for declining entry into an ELE program or procedures for parent notification.

Most students are appropriately recorded based on special population status, however there is little or no identification of economically disadvantaged students and the school reports no limited English proficient students in the district. The lack of appropriate identification of students from special populations can lead to inappropriate program placement. The school atmosphere appears supportive, encouraging, and sensitive to individual student needs.

The district is in full compliance with Title I requirements. Students most in need of services are identified according to the criteria specified in the Title I regulations. All special populations have full and equal access to Title I services.

Component III: Parental Involvement { TC "Component III: Parental Involvement" \f C \l "2" }

Has the district ensured that parents are notified in the appropriate language and are involved in decisions regarding their children's programs and services? Where appropriate, does the district involve community representatives in shaping programs?

The district has established policies and procedures to ensure parents, and students when appropriate, are provided with required notice and notice of procedural safeguards. Translation services, both written and verbal, are obtained from an outside provider should the parent require information in a language other than English. Notice forms always accompany any proposed change from the district and inform the parent of why the proposal is being made. Review of notice forms indicates that not all notice forms contain all required elements. Specifically, notice forms do not always include rejected options discussed at Team meetings in the narrative description. Prior to evaluating a student or implementing an IEP, the district consistently obtains parental consent. The district has developed procedures for the resolution of disputes consistent with IDEA 2004 requirements. A plan for training special education staff on these requirements will be developed.

The district does have active advisory committees, but several committees lack postsecondary and/or labor representation. Interviews indicated that parental involvement was limited.

The district has included parents in the Title I needs assessment and program evaluation and provides information to help them improve student achievement. On the district website, there is an explanation of the Title I program and a copy of the school-parent compact. However, the district also needs to conduct, with the involvement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parental involvement policy.

Component IV: Curriculum and Instruction{ TC "Component IV: Curriculum and Instruction" \f C \l "2" }

Does the district hold all students to high expectations and standards? Are programs designed to maximize student performance and students' participation in the general curriculum? Is curriculum throughout the district's programs based on the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks? Has the district provided for coordination across program areas?

The district has created a Curriculum Review Committee that regularly meets to review curriculum. Changes are made to the curriculum, when necessary, to ensure the district's programs are based on the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks. All students receive instruction based on the approved curriculum and the district meets structured time and learning requirements. A policy for the early release of high school seniors has been approved by the school committee, however, review of the 2005-06 school calendar indicates that seniors will be released more than 12 days before the regular scheduled closing of the school.

Program supports and specially designed instruction are individually identified on IEPs to ensure every student has equal access to the same content. The district has established a variety of regular and special education supports, including but not limited to, paraprofessionals, Math and ELA Title I services, Learning Centers, specialized vocational programs in the area of Culinary Arts and Power Mechanics, co-teaching environments, low teacher to pupil ratio and assistive technology evaluations and materials, which enable the success of every student. In addition, instructional grouping requirements always meet regulatory standards.

Although the district has cooperative work experience available and those providers sign a statement that their employment practices do not discriminate, the district does not have a formal process for obtaining or documenting those other prospective employers who recruit at the school will not discriminate in their hiring practices.

The district is aggressively pursuing alignment with the draft Vocational Technical Education Curriculum Frameworks. The district has curriculum designed to serve students with disabilities and is utilizing special materials to encourage integration of academics and technical instruction. Interviews expressed the opinion that the district is encouraging computer literacy. Bus transportation after school is only available one night per week, which limits students' ability to obtain after-school tutoring. Interviews indicated inconsistent opinions about the district's level of support for students who fall behind. Linkages with postsecondary institutions, although present, are not provided in every program and are inconsistently utilized.

Title I services are targeted at helping at-risk students meet the expectations and standards of the general curriculum. A thoughtful combination of school day and extended time strategies is provided. In addition efficient use of funds is employed through well coordinated planning and implementation of Title I resources with district and state funding.

Component V: Student Support Services{ TC "Component V: Student Support Services" \f C \l "2" }

Has the district ensured that all students have equal access to programs and services? Does the district provide support to students who need it?

Support services including individual and third party counseling services have been incorporated to assist students who may need services. The district has implemented behavioral intervention plans and student contracts to further support these students. Discipline and suspension procedures have been implemented and are routinely monitored by the special education department to ensure procedural protections are afforded to appropriate students, however, not all administrators are familiar with these processes. In addition, the district has not published or distributed the student code of conduct to staff, student's or parents for the 2005-06 school year.

The district indicates that all students have equal access to participate in all educational, nonacademic and extracurricular activities provided the student meets the eligibility requirements to participate, however, not all special education students have access to physical education, foreign language or the full range of senior English class options.

Review of handbooks indicates that not all required elements of the code of conduct, disciplinary procedures, designation of liaisons/coordinators; grievance procedures and annual and continuous notification concerning nondiscrimination and coordinators are included. In addition, the nondiscrimination statement included in the handbooks does not contain religion.

Some students are exposed to nontraditional by gender occupations through the exploratory process and are given support to stay in nontraditional by gender training through a support group. More could be done to generate interest in nontraditional by gender training prior to the random selection of exploratory assignments. The district has hired a part-time nontraditional by gender counselor this year.

The district has ensured that all students have access to Title I programs and services and provides support to students who need it based on a rank order list, as required. Title I services supplement and do not supplant other program areas.

Component VI: Faculty, Staff and Administration TC "Component VI: Faculty, Staff and Administration" \f C \l "2" }

Does the district maintain certified staff in the specific program areas, provide supervision of aides and tutors, and provide ongoing professional development? Are program leadership and oversight effective? Are the district's personnel procedures non-discriminatory and does it seek to recruit employees from all groups?

The district has demonstrated that professional development is key to successfully meeting each student's needs. Individual professional development plans are created for each staff person and are reviewed on a regular basis. Administrators seek staff input through use of a survey when district wide training is being planned. All special education personnel meet credentialing requirements and hold appropriate certifications for the content areas they teach. Review of professional development activities indicates that transportation providers only receive training when a special education student requires specialized transportation. Employment opportunities are published in all local newspapers and the district staff is very diverse.

The district is in compliance with CVTE and Title I criteria relative to licensure, supervision of paraprofessionals, and professional development.

Component VII: School Facilities TC "Component VII: School Facilities" \f C \l "2" }

Does the district maintain accessible facilities that are conducive to learning, facilitate integration, and provide equal opportunity for students to achieve?

Tour of the building and classroom observations indicate that integration is a key component to the success of all students. The school environment is welcoming, collaborative and safe for all students. Tour of the building indicates that the girls and boys locker rooms do not have handicapped accessible bathrooms or shower stalls. In addition, The district completed an ADA checklist that indicates not all ADA requirements have been fully met as required by the Office for Civil Rights.

The district has made significant strides in correcting safety findings reported in the Division of Occupational Safety audit conducted in the spring of 2005, but not all elements of the required corrections have been addressed. Some additional findings were noted during the Coordinated Program Review.

Component VIII: Program Plan and Evaluation TC "Component VIII: Program Plan and Evaluation" \f C \l "2" }

Does the district evaluate its programs in accordance with statutory and regulatory requirements? Does it use the results of its evaluations to improve programs? Do parents have opportunities for input on program needs, program implementation, and program evaluation and improvement?

The district conducted and submitted a comprehensive evaluation of its special education program. Review of the evaluation indicates that the special education Parent Advisory Council did not participate in the evaluation, and the evaluation results do not include analysis of drop out rates or graduation rates for special education students.

The district has not completed an annual institutional self-evaluation of all programs to ensure that all students have equal access to all programs nor has the district conducted a periodic evaluation of its ELE program for effectiveness.

The district does provide reports on its Perkins and Chapter 74 programs every year. During the most recent reporting period, the district failed to attain its expected performance levels for completion of high school and post secondary placement for students with disabilities and economically disadvantaged students and also failed to achieve the standard for enrollment and completion of students in nontraditional by gender programs.

Effective needs assessment and data analysis processes are utilized to identify appropriate programs and services that address the needs of students in the Title I program. However, parents should be surveyed as well with respect to their needs for training. The district currently conducts an evaluation of the Title I program that meets all criteria and guidelines except for parental evaluation of the parent involvement policy. The district provides the opportunity for parents to participate in the evaluation of the Title I instructional program.

Component IX: Record keeping { TC "Component IX: Record keeping" \f C \l "2" }

Does the district maintain required records and documentation for each program area? Are entitlement grants appropriately designed, amended, and locally monitored? Does the district use federal grant funds in accordance with statutory fund-use rules, including "supplement not supplant" provisions where applicable? Does the district meet applicable maintenance of effort requirements?

The district has established effective practices for maintaining student records across programs. Entitlement grants are appropriately designed, amended when necessary and monitored locally.

The financial record review indicated that the district may possess adequate means of tracking expenditures and ensuring that supplement, not supplant provisions are in compliance.

All required Title I records and documents are maintained on file and the grant is appropriately monitored. All fiscal requirements are met including maintenance of effort, comparability and supplement, not supplant provisions.

DEFINITION OF TERMS FOR COMPLIANCE RATINGS

FOR THE RATING OF EACH COMPLIANCE CRITERION{tc \l1 "DEFINITION OF TERMS FOR COMPLIANCE RATINGS}}

Commendable	Any requirement or aspect of a requirement implemented in an exemplary manner significantly beyond the requirements of law or regulation.
Implemented	The requirement is substantially met in all important aspects.
Implementation in Progress	The requirement includes one or more new federal special education (IDEA-2004) requirements that became effective during the 2005-2006 academic year. The district or charter school has substantially implemented any pre-July 1, 2005 requirements also included under the criterion and is currently engaged in staff training and/or is beginning implementation practices for new requirements which the Department’s onsite team anticipates will result in substantial compliance by the end of the 2005-2006 school year.
Partially Implemented	The requirement, in one or several important aspects, is not entirely met.
Not Implemented	The requirement is totally or substantially not met.
Not Applicable	The requirement does not apply to the school district or charter school.

Several key areas of compliance with federal special education requirements and one area under civil rights requirements have been highlighted in SHADED TEXT in the Program Review Criteria. These shaded areas are being monitored under the Massachusetts Special Education State Performance Plan and/or reported on in the state's Annual Performance Report, both mandated by the Office of Special Education Programs of the U.S. Department of Education. Some of these highlighted areas may also be areas that the Department of Education is closely monitoring because of concerns identified through a statewide special education steering committee needs assessment. School districts are reminded that although CPR activities may focus in certain key areas, the Department has the legal obligation under its general supervisory responsibilities to review any or all special education requirements as it deems necessary.

Department of Education Findings:

Documentation and interviews indicate that the district has developed procedures for transition planning that meet IDEA 2004 standards. The district always invites the student to participate in transition activities. Each student, regardless of age, is provide with a survey in advance of the Team meeting that elicits information regarding their interests and preferences. Students are always invited to Team meetings and typically participate as active Team members. The district has adopted the recommended Department Transition Planning Form and consistently utilizes it when discussing transition planning and goals. Record review indicates that the transition planning form is maintained in the student's record. Chapter 688 referrals are made when appropriate and documentation is maintained in the student's record. Although the student survey is consistently used, record review indicates that not all IEP's include a vision statement that is based on the student's interest and preferences and at times included the parent's or Team's vision for the student. Additionally, not all IEP's reflect age specific considerations on the Present Levels of Educational Performance, Part B.

Documentation indicates that the district provides progress reports to parents of students with disabilities as frequently as parents of non-disabled students. Record review indicates that progress reports do not always reflect progress toward the goal and do not always state whether progress is sufficient to enable the student to reach the goal by the end of the IEP period. The district arranges to have eligible students who use wheelchairs transported in vehicles that do not require such children to be removed from their wheelchairs in order to enter or leave the vehicles; provided, however, that this requirement is not applicable where a Team or the student’s physician recommends that the student regularly transfer in and out of conventional vehicles to or from a wheelchair for therapeutic or for independence training reasons. 3. The Team specifies whether the student requires assistance in or out of the home, on or off of the vehicle, and in or out of the school. If such assistance is specified, the district ensures that it is provided. 4. Department of Education Findings:

Record reviews and interviews indicate that the district does not use MCAS scores to plan students' academic coursework. Nor was evidence provided that parents/guardians are provided with opportunities to be involved in the planning of their child's entire program of studies. There is no evidence that assessment results are shared with the student's parents, teachers and counselors in order to help them understand the individual student. No provisions are made to assist parents/guardians whose primary language is other than English with understanding the assessment results. The grading system used to assess exploratory experiences is inconsistent with that in the school's admission policy. Department of Education Findings:

Record review and interviews indicate that most groups were represented on the advisory committees. Interviews revealed that labor and postsecondary education representatives are not present on some of the advisory councils and that parents did not always feel there was equal opportunity to participate on a committee since the school district selects the parents to be members of the committees. Department of Education Findings:

Interviews, documentation and videotapes provided to the incoming 9th grade class indicate that students are made aware of the opportunities available in CVTE programs, but materials in the native language of limited English proficient students or their parent(s) are not provided consistently. The admission application is not in compliance with the regulations and needs to be redesigned. The “voluntary section” must include language for the self-identification of applicants with disabilities, and/or English language learners so accommodations during the application and admission process are available if desired. Parental consent is necessary and acceptable on the application, however specific parental information may be collected after admission to the school (i.e.; emergency cards, student data card). The district must revise the statement at the bottom of page 1 that "... authorizes the release to Old Colony of any and all educational records and special needs information concerning my son or daughter". Old Colony may request the release of grades, attendance, discipline and school recommendation. Birthplace information needs to be moved to the voluntary section. It must be clear to the applicant that the information in the "voluntary section" is not mandatory. The following language must be included in the "Voluntary Section":

The information requested in this section is not required for admission. Submission of the information is entirely voluntary. Information submitted voluntarily by the applicant will not affect the applicant's admission to the school. The information, if supplied, will be used for monitoring equal educational opportunity in the school district. In addition, note that applicants with disabilities may voluntarily self-identify for the purpose of requesting reasonable accommodations during the entire application and admission process. Applicants who are English language learners or limited English proficient may voluntarily self-identify for the purpose of receiving interpretive services during the entire application and admission process.

Please reference the "Chapter 74 Manual for Vocational Technical Education Admission Policies" available on-line at: www.doe.mass.edu/cte/. The district was notified that the "voluntary section" of the application needed to be changed in a memorandum from the State Director of Career Vocational and Technical Education dated December 15, 2004.

The district must change "handicap" to "disability" in all the admissions, recruitment materials and the Student Handbook. The Student Handbook needs to include the McKinney Vinto Act. The Student Handbook must eliminate language located on page three, Exploratory Program, that reads: "Students may be returned to their sending schools, if in the opinion of the administration, they are not profiting from their training, or they will not conform to the rules and regulations that are set up for safety and benefit of all. It must be understood that the ninth grade exploratory program at Old Colony is a 'trial period' to determine whether or not a student will substantially profit from our basic program."

There is no trial period for students who are accepted under the application and admission process. Exploratory programs are not individually identified in the Program of Study. Assignment to the last three exploratory programs are random and needs to be planned with students' assessments of interests, aptitudes, abilities and nontraditional career exposures in mind. Although counseling is available to students, there is no documented formal process in the school for providing ongoing career information and guidance to all students. Documentation of a four-year career plan was submitted by the district, however it appeared from interviews that staff and students were not familiar with the career plan and repeatedly referenced shop portfolios.

	Rating: Partially Implemented	District Response Required: Yes

Department of Education Findings:

Interviews and observation indicate that the district is using the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks including the draft Vocational Technical Education Curriculum Frameworks, in order to ensure that students are taught to high standards. Students all cover the same materials. The district requires attainment of national skills certification and state licenses in applicable programs. The programs are broad in scope and content to allow students to become proficient in the skills that will provide them with numerous career and postsecondary option. There are interesting steps being made toward integration through the use of a specialized curricular package and senior projects. There is no foreign language course offering provided to students in certain classes and no physical education available for certain students due to scheduling issues. Physical Education instruction is a Commonwealth-required prerequisite for high school graduation.

The student criterion for eligibility for cooperative education is not uniform throughout the school and the student requirements vary depending upon the vocational program a student is enrolled in. There is also inconsistency in the expectations that the district has for student cooperative education sites. Some cooperative education sites did not exhibit the “acquisition of skills that can only be learned outside of the classroom environment.” Records reviewed indicated no planning of the cooperative education experience to ensure that there is a set of skills for the student to acquire on the cooperative education site.

CVTE 9	Technology is used to improve academic and technical education. Perkins Section 135; Chapter 74 603 CMR 4.03 (4)
	Rating: Implemented	District Response Required: No

Department of Education Findings:

Interviews and observations indicate that the classrooms do use modern technology. Interviews further revealed that the district does strive to ensure computer literacy for students.

CRITERION NUMBER

CVTE 10	Linkages between secondary and postsecondary programs exist and are accessible to all students. Perkins Sections 13, 201; Chapter 74 603 CMR 4.03 (4)
	Rating: Partially Implemented District Response Required: Yes

Department of Education Findings:

Based upon interviews with staff and review of articulation agreements and the district's College Day materials, there is a good working relationship between the district and postsecondary institutions. However, students enrolled in Tech-Prep do not have career plans and not every program has postsecondary linkages. The carpentry program does not have a linkage to a registered apprenticeship program in carpentry.)

CVTE 12	Required professional development is provided to staff. Perkins Section 135
	Rating: Partially Implemented District Response Required: Yes

Department of Education Findings:

Documentation, interviews and videotapes provided to the incoming 9th grade class indicate that students are made aware of the opportunities available in career/vocational technical education programs, but materials in the native language of limited English proficient students or their parent(s) are not provided consistently. Also assistive technology is inconsistently offered or not well understood by staff. See CVTE 7.

CVTE 13	Individuals who are members of special populations {that includes individuals with disabilities; individuals from economically disadvantaged families, including foster children; individuals preparing for nontraditional by gender training and employment; single parents, including single pregnant women; displaced homemakers; and individuals with other barriers to educational achievement including individuals with limited English proficiency are provided with equal access to recruitment activities, admission and opportunities to a full range of courses of study without regard to race, color, gender, religion, national origin, English language proficiency, disability, or sexual orientation, and with programs that enable them to meet or exceed state adjusted levels of performance. Perkins Section 122, Chapter 76, section 5 [Chapter 622], Title IX; M.G.L. c.74 603 CMR 4.03 (4)(6)(7)

Department of Education Findings:

Documentation and interviews indicate that students are exposed to nontraditional by gender support once they have chosen a nontraditional by gender training area. There is little exposure to nontraditional by gender vocational fields to students when they are enrolled at the district and preparing to make vocational program choices. Through random selection, some students are exposed to a nontraditional training by gender program during one or two exploratory experiences.

Department of Education Findings:

*Classroom and facility observation indicate that the district has made great progress in correcting safety deficiencies identified in the Division of Occupational Safety Report completed in the spring of 2005, but some issues remain. The items that have yet to be addressed are attached to this report. One noteworthy finding is that issues such as regularly scheduled inspections of lifts have not been addressed.

Department of Education Findings:

Documentation (SIMS information and follow-up information) provided by the district to the Massachusetts Department of Education indicates that this criterion was partially implemented.

Perkins Act Core Indicators:

- (1) Student attainment of challenging State established academic and technical skill proficiencies; The district attained this goal during the most recent reporting period.
- (2) Student attainment of a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent, a proficiency credential in conjunction with a secondary school diploma, or a post secondary degree or credential; The district attained this goal during the most recent reporting period for the category All Students. It did not attain this goal for students with disabilities (90.28% instead of the goal of 91.23%) and economically disadvantaged students (80.65% instead of the goal of 91.23%). There were no identified LEP students, so this category was not measured.

- (3) Placement in, retention in, and completion of postsecondary education or advanced training, placement in military service, or placement or retention in employment; *The district attained this goal during the most recent reporting period for the category All Students. It did not attain this goal for students with disabilities (95.12% instead of the goal of 95.58%) and economically disadvantaged students (85.71% instead of the goal of 95.58%). Appendix:
Safety Report

Old Colony Regional Technical High School

Outstanding Safety Issues and New Items identified during Coordinated Program Review Visit:

Safety Issues Found by Gary Gomes Dec 2005

Auto Repair:

Floodlight in back room without shatter resistant cover

Juncture boxes are placed on top of other juncture boxes—although the top juncture boxes are secured and are permanent installations, there are gaps between the two boxes, exposing wires underneath.

Small Engine Repair: Grinding machine not properly secured to floor.

Offset printing:

GFCI plug placed on face of juncture box is loose; the installation needs to be made more secure.

Electrical cord was plugged in to outlet on other side of storage room, to present an obvious tripping hazard. This was corrected during the visit.

Large table obstructed access to fire blanket.

Welding:

Powermatic grinder has loose on and off switch.

Miscellaneous:

* Wall ground plugs in many locations throughout the school are broken.

* Signage indicating areas as “Not exits” were not properly labeled. Most of these were addressed during the visit.

DOS Report - Outstanding Safety Issues: The following items, which have not been addressed, are listed in sequence in the DOS report:

ITEM 002

The Maximum weight permitted to be stored on the floor or platform or storage rack was not posted in a conspicuous place.

Location: Electrical

Items D and E: Appropriate signage was not posted in the Electrical classroom.

Location: Offset Printing

Item F: Offset Printing - Paper Storage Room, shelving and rack storage systems are bent and show deflection.

COMMENTS: The above items must be addressed.

ITEM 003

A safe means of access was not provided at a ladderway floor opening or platform.

Location: Electrical

The stairway is currently not in use. No timeline was identified for when the ladderway would be made safe.

COMMENTS: The above item must be addressed.

ITEM 011

A compressed gas cylinder in use or storage was not properly supported or secured to prevent them from being knocked over.

A. Location: Culinary Kitchen

2 CO2 gas bottles were not secured by wash station table. This has not been corrected. It is supposed to be corrected by Coca Cola, the supplier.

B. Location: Welding

TIG Room, unsecured cylinder. When inspected, the chain to secure the bottle was not fastened. Corrected by instructor during visit.

COMMENTS: The above items must be addressed.

ITEM 012:

Adequate precautions were not taken against ignition of flammable vapors. Install signage stating: NO SMOKING, NO OPEN FLAMES or similar wording.

Location: Welding

Signage not posted.

COMMENTS: The above items must be addressed.

ITEM 018:

Material was not stacked, blocked, interlocked or limited in height so that it was stable and secure from sliding and/or collapse.

Location: Offset Printing

See ITEM 002 above.

COMMENTS: The above items must be addressed.

ITEM 019:

A program had not been established to inspect hoists on a frequent basis.

As of the CPR visit, this program was not instituted.

COMMENTS: The above items must be addressed.

ITEM 020:

Thorough monthly inspections of wire rope conditions were not performed.

As of the CPR visit, these inspections were not performed.

COMMENTS: The above items must be addressed.

ITEM 023:

A machine designed for a fixed location was not securely anchored to prevent walking or moving.

Location: Welding

TIG Room Unlabeled pedestal grinder.

COMMENTS: Currently not in use and has a loose power switch.

Should be removed if it cannot be secured or if the on/off switch cannot be repaired.

The above items must be addressed.

ITEM 028:

The distance between abrasive wheel peripheries and the adjustable tongue or end of safety guard peripheral member at the top exceeding one-fourth inch.

- A. Location Electrical: Baldor grinder exceeds one-fourth inch setting; must be adjusted.
- B. Location Machine and Tool: Baldor grinder in question currently has no grinding wheels. Must be set to one-fourth inch when put into use again.

COMMENTS: The above items must be addressed.

ITEM 033:

Electrical equipment was not free from a recognized hazard that was likely to cause death or serious physical harm.

- A. Location Culinary Kitchen:
Disconnect at dishwasher has 2 indented concentric knockouts. As of the CPR visit, this was not addressed.
- B. Location Cafeteria Kitchen:
Walk-in freezer has a cover plate missing on the junction box to the fan. As of the CPR visit, this was not addressed.
- C. Location Carpentry:
Northfield Planer grinding attachment has a defective power switch. As of the CPR visit, this was not addressed. According to the instructor, this had been repaired, but the repair job is showing wires again.

COMMENTS: The above items must be addressed.

ITEM 034:

Electrical equipment created a hazard because it was not suitable for its intended purpose.

Location Carpentry:

Delta Pedestal Fan has ground pin missing. As of the CPR visit, this was not addressed.

COMMENTS: The above item must be addressed.

ITEM 036:

Listed or labeled electrical equipment was not used or installed in accordance with instructions included in the listing or labeling.

Location - Facility:

All shops and locations using metal outlet boxes as part of a job made extension cord for extended power usage.

As of the CPR visit, this was not addressed. It was observed in use in Automotive Repair and Offset Printing. The electrical instructors indicated that this was within code. Old Colony must provide evidence that these connections meet current safety standards.

- A. Location Electrical:
Platform, Panel ESP-B has a first aid kit and framed photograph fastened to the panel cover. The first aid kit was removed while I watched. The "photograph" was placed elsewhere.
- D. Location Automotive:
Main panels have broken panel locks and the covers are sprung. As of the CPR visit, this was not addressed.

COMMENTS: The above items must be addressed.

ITEM 037:

An electrical disconnecting means was not adequately marked to indicate its purpose.

A. Location Culinary Kitchen:

Service and machine disconnects. As of the CPR visit, this was not addressed.

B. Location Cafeteria Kitchen:

All machine disconnects. As of the CPR visit, this was not addressed.

C. Location Maintenance Staff Area:

D. Panels K-LP; KHP; HP-6 unmarked breakers. As of the CPR visit, this was not addressed.

COMMENTS: The above items must be addressed.

ITEM 038:

Sufficient access and working space was not provided and/or maintained about electrical equipment operating at 600 volts nominal, or less, to permit ready and safe operation and maintenance.

A. Location Maintenance Staff Area:

Materials blocking access to panels. As of the CPR visit, this was not addressed.

B. Location Automotive:

Transformer in office is blocked by materials in storage cabinet. As of the CPR visit, this was not addressed.

C. Location Electrical:

Platform, panels and transformer blocked. As of the CPR visit, this was not addressed.

The panels were not blocked. Electrical instructors stated that the 3-4 foot clearance requirement only applied to panels and not transformers, but there appeared to be less than six inches clearance from the desk to the transformer. This is inadequate space to access the unit.

D. Location Facility:

All shops, job made extension cords with metal boxes and Relocatable Power Taps (RPT's) are being used as an extension of the permanent wiring of the building.

This was most observable in automotive repair and offset printing, but other shops showed evidence of the installation of RPT's.

COMMENTS: The above areas must be addressed or a safety standard provided indicating why the finding is incorrect.

ITEM 039:

Working space around electrical equipment was cluttered with items that should be in storage. The workspace needs to be cleared of these materials.

These are the same findings as ITEM 038 and the comments are the same.

ITEM 041:

An unused opening in an electrical box, cabinet or fitting was not effectively closed.

Location Automotive:

Knockout missing on transformer mounted on wall by office area power panels. This was corrected, but an identical violation was found on the east wall of the shop.

COMMENTS: The above areas must be addressed.

ITEM 042:

Flexible electrical cord or cable was used as a substitute for the fixed wiring of the structure.

A. Location Facility:

All shops, job made extension cords with metal boxes and Relocatable Power Taps (RPT's) are being used as an extension of the permanent wiring of the building.

This was most observable in automotive repair and offset printing, but other shops showed evidence of the installation of RPT's.

COMMENTS: The above areas must be addressed or a safety standard provided indicating why the finding is incorrect.

APPENDIX:
SCHOOL DISTRICT PROFILE INFORMATION

The information that is provided in this Appendix was drawn from data supplied by the school district or charter school. The Department's visiting team carefully reviewed this data as part of its planning for the onsite visit and in preparing this Coordinated Program Review Report. This district-wide information, together with more detailed school building data, is periodically updated by the school district and is available in an ever current form on the Department's internet web site at <http://profiles.doe.mass.edu/>.

School District Profile Information

Introduction

The Massachusetts Department of Education collects a variety of data from schools and districts in the state. Some of the information collected is published in the School and District Profiles. In addition to profiles, users can also view and download school & district directories and data reports. The data reports provide particular data for all schools & districts and can be sorted and/or exported. A "profile" is a snapshot of the data for a specific school/district or charter school.

Organization Types

Approved Special Education Schools	Responsible for providing an education for students with disabilities. A school district (LEA) may place a student in an out-of-state program if it believes that such program is the most appropriate for the student.
Charter School	Public schools that are created by parents, teachers, businesses, and community leaders and have the freedom to organize their activities around a core mission, curriculum, or teaching method. Their autonomy gives them the freedom to create their own budgets and to hire and fire teachers and staff.
Collaborative	Collaboratives are formed through an agreement among two or more school committees to provide education for their member school systems. Agreements must be filed with the Commissioner of DOE. A Board representative of each member school committee manages them.
Private School	A non-publicly funded school that provides educational services directly to attending students.
Public School	Public schools are administered by a Public School District, and provide educational services directly to attending students.
Public School Districts	An administrative unit responsible for managing primary and secondary school services within a defined geographical boundary.

About the Data

Data in Profiles is displayed in four sections:

Directory Information

Enrollment/Indicators

Test Results

Finance - district level only

Directory Information

Districts view, add, update and delete their own directory information to ensure that the information is as up-to-date and accurate as possible.

DOE Code:

The eight-digit DOE Code following the school or district name is assigned by the Massachusetts Department of Education to every organization listed in the Directory Profiles, including every district and school in the Commonwealth. For districts and schools, the first four digits represent the District Code and the last four digits represent the School Code. Thus the DOE code "02660505" stands for "0266" (Sharon Public Schools) + "0505" (Sharon High).

Prior to the 2001 school year, DOE codes contained six digits (three for the district and three for the school.) With the exception of some special needs schools, the eight-digit codes are the same as the six-digit codes with one zero added before the district code and another zero added before the school code. Thus, Sharon High's old six-digit DOE code was 266505.

Please Note: The DOE Code is not the same as the Institution codes assigned by the College board for SAT and AP results or the NCES code assigned to Massachusetts schools by the U.S. Department of Education.

Grades/Schools:

For districts this section displays the number and grade range of elementary, middle/junior high and high schools in the district, as well as the total number of schools in the district and the grade range of the school system. An elementary range beginning with "PK" indicates the district has pre-kindergarten. Kindergarten starting age indicates the age as of a particular date at which children are eligible to begin kindergarten.

Relationships: (for districts only)

- Membership - Union: A "school union" is a group of school systems that are administered by one superintendent.
- Grade Tuition Agreement: A town may tuition all their students in a particular grade span into another school system.
- Membership - Academic Regional: A regional school district provides educational services to more than one town. For a city/town district, this lists the name(s) of any academic regional district(s) of which the local school district is a member. For an academic regional district, this lists the member cities and towns.
- Membership - Vocational Regional: A regional school district provides educational services to more than one town. For a city/town district, this lists the name(s) of any vocational regional district(s) of which the local school district is a member. For a vocational regional district, this lists the member cities and towns.
- Membership - Independent Vocational: An independent vocational district is administered by a board of trustees. For a city/town district, this lists the name(s) of any independent vocational district(s) of which the local school district is a member. For an independent vocational district, this lists the member cities and towns. Tuition is charged to out-of-town residents.
- Membership - County Agricultural: A county agricultural district is administered by a board of trustees. For a city/town district, this lists the name(s) of any county agricultural district(s) of which the local school district is a member. For a county agricultural district, this lists the member cities and towns.
- Membership - Collaboratives: Educational Collaboratives are formed through an agreement among two or more school committees to provide educational programs or services for their member school systems. For a district, this lists the name(s) of any collaboratives of which the district is a member. For a collaborative this lists the member districts.
- Private Schools located in this city/town: Lists the private schools located in the city/town.

Organization Characteristics

- Chapter 74 Approved Vocational Technical Program: Programs that meet the definition of vocational technical education contained in Massachusetts General Law Chapter 74, Section 1 and are approved by the Department of Education pursuant to c. 74 and the Vocational Technical Education Regulations 603 CMR 4.00 are known as "Chapter-74 approved programs".

- Charter School Type:

Commonwealth- A public school that is managed by a board of trustees and operates independently of any school committee under a five-year charter granted by the Board of Education. It has the freedom to organize around a core mission, curriculum, theme, and/or teaching method and to control its own budget and hire (and fire) teachers and staff. In return for this freedom, a charter school must attract students and produce positive results within five years or its charter will not be renewed.

Horace Mann- Operates under the same set of rules as described above, with the following exceptions. First, a Horace Mann charter school must have its charter approved by the local school committee and the local teacher's union in addition to the Board of Education. Second, to the extent provided by their charters, Horace Mann charter schools may be exempt from certain provisions in local collective bargaining agreements. Third, employees of a Horace Mann charter school remain members of the local collective bargaining unit; continue to accrue seniority; and receive, at a minimum, the salary and benefits established by the local collective bargaining agreement.

- District Operating Status:

Non-Operating - A town that does not directly operate a school district. The town belongs to a regional school district or pays tuition for their students to attend another school district.

Operating - A city/town that operates its own local school district. It may operate as its own district at some grades, and belong to a regional district or tuition out its students at other grades.

- District Title I Status: A district that receives federal Title I funding.

- District Type:

Institutional School - State institutional schools that are administered by the DOE.

County Agricultural - Agricultural school district that is administered by a board of trustees.

Independent Public - This category includes Commonwealth Charter Schools, Horace Mann Charter Schools and the Massachusetts Academy of Mathematics and Science.

Independent Vocational - Vocational school district that is administered by a board of trustees.

Local School - District that is administered by a city or town school committee.

Regional Academic - District that is administered by a regional school committee.

Regional Vocational Tech - District that is administered by a regional vocational school committee.

- Inter-District School Choice:

Does Not Offer Choice - The local school committee has voted not to accept students from other communities under the School Choice regulations.

Not Accepting New Enrollments - The school district participates in the School Choice program, but is not accepting new students at this time.

Offers Choice - The school district is accepting students from other districts as defined under the School Choice regulations.

- Out of State School (Only those out-of-state schools which MA students attend with public funds are listed.):
Private School - a non-public school located outside of Massachusetts.
Public School - a public school located outside of Massachusetts.
- School Title I Status:
Non-Title I School - School does not have a Title I program.
Title I School (SW) - School has a Schoolwide Title I program.
Title I School (TA) - School has a Targeted Assistance Title I program.
Title I School (TAP) - School has a Targeted Assistance Title I program and is in the planning year to have a Schoolwide program
- Special Ed Single Source (Unapproved) Program: The program has not met program and safety requirements as defined under Massachusetts and federal law.
- Special Education Approved Program: The program meets program and safety requirements as defined under Massachusetts and federal law.

Finance - District level data only

Per Pupil Expenditures: Calculated by dividing a district's operating costs by its average pupil membership. Operating costs include expenditures for administration, instruction, pupil services, transportation, plant maintenance, and fixed charges. These costs do not include capital outlay and long-term interest on school debt. Average pupil membership includes students who receive services in the district's schools, as well as students receiving home or hospital instruction. Data for regular education, special education, bilingual education and vocational education students are provided in addition to the total for all day programs, for the listed school years.
