

Teen Dating Violence Advisory Group

The Advisory Group can be involved in many program components, including: providing preventive education, drafting policies and procedures, providing community/parent forums, victim support services, intervention services, and peer empowerment programs.