

Proposed Board of Trustees

Paul Bassett is a retired educator and administrator with 45 years in public and private schools. He continues to work at the Stoneleigh-Burnham School as a teacher and debate coach. He resides in Erving.

Edward Berlin is an attorney with 40 years of experience. He is currently employed by the Executive Office of Health and Human Services as a labor relations specialist. He resides in Greenfield.

Christopher Joseph is an information technology business/data analyst and the father two sons attending Greenfield public schools. He is a member of the Greenfield Town Council, Zoning Board of Appeals, and School Committee for the Franklin County Technical School.

Michael Phillips e-commerce architect and implementation manager with significant experience leading non-profits, including Access to Technology, an organization that transfers donated computer equipment from large institutions to under-served youth. He resides in Greenfield.

Christina Powell is a medical and technical writer and management consultant. She was previously involved in cancer research. A resident of Reading, she has two children who attend MAVA.

Additional information on the proposed Board of Trustees:

<http://www.recorder.com/news/nation/world/6394054-95/school-board-chooses-virtual-schools-trustees>