

What to Expect if Your Family Speaks a Language Other than English

Schools and families work together to help students learn English.

The school district tests your child's English language skills

Your child needs English Learner Education (ELE)

Here is what you can do!

- Learn about options
- Visit programs
- Choose from available programs

Students become skilled at reading, writing, speaking, and listening in English.

Your child does not need English Learner Education (ELE)

Your child attends school as a successful multilingual learner

Your child may earn an award, the State Seal of Biliteracy
