Explain how the narrator’s attitude toward his father changes from the beginning to the end of the story. Support your answer with relevant and specific information from the story.