

29

A physician recorded the resting heart rates of some of her patients. She also recorded the average number of hours each of those patients exercises daily. She will make a graphical display of the data to help determine whether the two variables are associated.

Which of the following displays should the physician make?

- A. bar graph
- B. scatterplot
- C. circle graph
- D. box-and-whisker plot