Examples of Prohibited Materials During MCAS Testing

Cell phones
Smart watches and fitness bands
Music players and headphones
Calculators (unless your test administrator says you may use one)
Dictionaries
Notes and extra reference sheets
Books in the subject area being tested (You may read a book after testing when your test administrator says it’s ok.)