

LOCAL AGREEMENTS

Parties are encouraged to continue to work together to resolve their disputes before, during, and after a complaint has been filed with the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education's Problem Resolution System Office. If the parties resolve all or a portion of the allegations raised in the complaint prior to PRS issuing a decision, the complainant may withdraw the resolved allegations. Whenever a complainant chooses to withdraw their complaint or some of the allegations made within their complaint, the complainant must contact the assigned PRS Specialist to inform them of the withdrawal. If the parties reach a local agreement, they may use this form to provide notice to PRS of the local agreement.

As guidance, elements of an effective local agreement may include:

- the parties' names and signatures;
- the date of the agreement;
- a description of what action will occur or cease to occur;
- when the action will be completed;
- who is responsible for ensuring the action occurs;
- the period covered by the agreement;
- a process for review when the action occurs;
- a plan for making changes to the agreement, if needed;
- the impact of the agreement on any active dispute resolution process, including this PRS complaint;
- what to do if a party believes the agreement is not being met.
